PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Plaintiffs withdraw any effort to obtain preliminary injunctive relief to affect the 2012 elections. Plaintiffs have been urging the Independent Redistricting Commission (“IRC”) to meet and discuss a pre-trial schedule and the other matters required by the stock case management report form and form of Rule 16 order, posted on the Court’s website, and a meeting has been suggested but not confirmed for Thursday or Friday, May 24 or 25, 2012. To proceed orderly and businesslike, Plaintiffs had intended to raise the matter of withdrawing preliminary injunctive relief for 2012 at such meeting so that it could be taken up as part of arriving at an overall proposed schedule. To that end, Plaintiffs had offered the Citizens Clean Elections Commission the same stipulation that they reached with Maricopa County and that was filed yesterday. For the sake of efficiency and to avoid any waste of judicial or party resources, Plaintiffs will accelerate their plans, and announce now their intention to bypass preliminary injunctive relief for the 2012 elections. Plaintiffs will continue to pursue injunctive relief to prevent the IRC’s legislative plan, adopted on January 17, 2012, from being used for any other election.

DATED ON May 22, 2012.
