BY _____ DEPUTY

In the Western District of Louisiana

Mr. Ron Ceasar

Versus

Honorable: Patrick J. HANNA
Presiding Judge

Motion & Order For Default Judgement

NOW INTO THE COURT, comes PhD student, Mr. Ron Ceasar with motion for judgment by default and avers that:

1.

Defendants have failed to answer in the prescribed time allowed by court

Plaintiff prays that this honorable court orders judgment by default because defendants are in contempt of court and all time prescriptions allowed by law have long expired.

Hence the elections results of November 6, 2012 should be placed on hold for the 5th Congressional District of Louisiana pending final judgment in this matter which deals with a violation of the 1965 Voting Rights Act involving minorities, mainly Blacks living in St. Landry Parish of Louisiana having their voting strength diluted by reapportionment driven by republicans who are majority in house and senate of Louisiana Legislature with an extreme right-wing governor, who appears to have an extreme dislike for Blacks as evidence by the regression of Blacks during his tenure of 5 years.
