Counsel,

Attached are the supplemental responses to the plaintiffs' first set of interrogatories and first set of admissions. Further, the State Board of Elections recently located an email archive of a departed employee and responsive emails from that email archive are attached. We are also producing documents that the Department of Planning provided to us when we asked for the non-duplicative pages from the GRAC briefing books. A cd containing all of these documents was placed in the mail today. We will be making further inquiries to the Department of Planning regarding the material they have provided to us.

Best,
Jennifer
