House of Representatives 27 District

Billy Ray Todd

My name is Billy Ray Todd. I live in Guntersville and am seeking the Republican nomination for the Alabama House of Representatives District 27.

I have served the U.S. Army 82nd Airborne Division in FT Bragg N.C. for 24 years.

I'm a Bronze Star recipient after having served in 11 combat tours around the globe and as a Search and Recovery Specialist.

I decided to run for office after having witnessed teachers and a coach being falsely accused of racism to push DEI (Diversity, Equity and Inclusion) in our schools. I was threatened with defending them.

No teacher should fear being labeled a racist. And children shouldn't be indoctrinated into racism and Marxism.

I have a passion for fellow veterans. No veteran should have to fight for their benefits after having served this country honorably. Alabama loves her veteran. I want to help make Alabama's VA system an example for the whole nation to follow.

I know how to do this. After retiring from the military, I had to fight for my benefits. No veteran should be forced to deal with burden. So, I decided to work for the VA. I worked in healthcare. Then moved into Compensation and Pension. After retiring from the VA, I volunteered my time working with veterans seeking VA benefits.

Seniors Citizen's and the Disabled have a hard time getting Social Security Benefits. This unacceptable, I'm going work on this issue.

As a fiscal conservative, I want to cut wasteful spending so there will be no need for tax increases.

I am strong supporter 1st and 2nd Amendment. I'm Pro-Life Christian Conservative.

I am a Constitutionalist.

I want to be the voice of the forgotten Alabamian.
