DEFENDANT SECRETARY OF STATE ALLEN'S OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO SINGLETON PLAINTIFFS'
THIRD SET OF REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 36, Alabama Secretary of State Wes Allen hereby responds to the Singleton Plaintiffs' Third Set of Requests for Admission.

General Statement

Secretary Allen has relied on the information presently available to him. Further or different information may be discovered during the discovery phase of the litigation. Secretary Allen will amend his Objections and Responses to the extent required pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26.

Secretary Allen's Responses to each request are made subject to all objections as to privilege, competence, relevance, materiality, propriety, and admissibility, as well as any and all other obligations and grounds that would require the exclusion of evidence. Secretary Allen reserves the right to make any and all such objections at the appropriate time.

General Objections

Secretary Allen objects to the Instructions to the extent that they purport to impose any requirements or obligations different from those contained in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the local Rules of this Court, applicable orders of the Court, and/or related agreements.

Secretary Allen further objects to each and every request that is not “separately stated” as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 36(a)(2).

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 94: In the districting plan enacted by the Legislature in July 2023 (the “2023 Plan”), Jefferson County is split between Districts 6 and 7.

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 95: The shape of District 7 in Jefferson County in the 2023 Plan is based on the shape of District 7 in the plan enacted in 2021.

Response: Secretary Allen objects to this request on grounds that the Secretary of State did not enact the 2023 Plan, and Secretary Allen does not have personal knowledge of the bases of the decisions made by the various members of the Legislature who voted on the 2023 Plan. Without waiving this objection, Secretary Allen admits that a visual comparison of the shape of District 7 in Jefferson County in the 2021 Plan versus the shape of District 7 in Jefferson County in the 2023 Plan reveals some similarities as well as some differences.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 96: District 7 in the 2023 Plan contains about 71% of the Black population of Jefferson County.

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 97: The portion of District 7 in Jefferson County in the 2023 Plan is about 57% Black. The portion of District 6 in Jefferson County is about 27% Black.

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 98: During the July 2023 special session of the Legislature, Senators Bobby Singleton and Rodger Smitherman each proposed a plan for Alabama's congressional districts (the "Singleton Plan" and the "Smitherman Plan").

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 99: The Singleton Plan and Smitherman Plan both have one district largely comprised of Jefferson County and another district largely comprised of the Black Belt.

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 100: At least since 2012, the candidate of choice for Black voters in Alabama’s statewide elections has been the Democrat.

Response: Admitted that a majority of black voters have supported the Democratic candidate in the past several statewide general elections. Otherwise denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 101: In the Jefferson County and Black Belt districts of the Singleton and Smitherman Plans, Black voters have an equal opportunity to elect candidates of their choice.

Response: Secretary Allen objects to this request on grounds that “equal opportunity to elect” is not defined. Without waiving these objections, see responses to requests number 102 and 103.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 102: In statewide elections since 2012, the Democratic candidate received more votes than their opponent in 22 of the 28 statewide races contested by a Democrat and a Republican in the Singleton Plan's Jefferson County district, and in 28 of 28 races in the Black Belt district.

Response: Admitted.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 104: According to the Secretary of State, the Republican candidate for Governor in 2022, Kay Ivey, reported spending $10,725,072.39 during the 2022 election cycle, which is about 843 times as much as the Democratic candidate, Yolanda Flowers, reported spending ($12,725.87).

Response: Admitted, except that any implication that these are the only differences between the candidates is denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 105: According to the Federal Election Commission, the Republican candidate for Senate in 2022, Katie Britt, reported spending $9,744,197.22 during the 2022 election cycle, which is about 80 times as much as the Democratic candidate, Will Boyd, reported spending ($121,509.06).

Response: Admitted, except that any implication that these are the only differences between the candidates is denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 106: According to the Secretary of State, the Republican candidate for Attorney General in 2022, Steve Marshall, reported spending $1,051,319.08 during the 2022 election cycle, which is about 152 times as much as the Democratic candidate, Wendell Major, reported spending ($6,896.80).

Response: Admitted, except that any implication that these are the only differences between the candidates is denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 107: According to the Secretary of State, the Republican candidate for Associate Justice–Place 5 in 2022, Greg Cook, reported spending $2,010,168.45 during the 2022 election cycle, which is about 89 times as much as the Democratic candidate, Anita Kelly, reported spending ($22,505.56).

Response: Admitted, except that any implication that these are the only differences between the candidates is denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 108: According to the Secretary of State, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State in 2022, Wes Allen, reported spending $787,607.30 during the 2022 election cycle, which is about 28 times as much as the Democratic candidate, Pamela Lafitte, reported spending ($28,518.91).

Response: Admitted, except that any implication that these are the only differences between the candidates is denied.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 109: Dave's Redistricting App is a reliable source of information about the population and racial demographics of congressional districts.

Response: Denied.
