STATE DEFENDANTS' THIRD SUPPLEMENT TO THEIR INITIAL DISCLOSURES

Hon. Wes Allen, sued in his official capacity as Alabama Secretary of State, and Rep. Chris Pringle, sued in his official capacity as House Chair of the Alabama Permanent Legislative Committee on Reapportionment, supplement their initial disclosures pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 29(a)(1)(A) as follows:

(i) The name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information--along with the subjects of that information--that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.

Amended subject matter of information: Dr. Landers has information about ADPH's response to COVID-19, particularly with respect to vaccine distribution, as well as about activities ADPH facilitates, or participates in, to improve access to health care services for rural Alabamians with special concern for children, the elderly, minorities, and other medically underserved vulnerable populations.

The State Defendants reserve the right to call and cross-examine any witnesses listed by any other party. The State Defendants incorporate by reference each of the individuals or entities identified in Plaintiffs' initial disclosures and any supplements or amendments thereto as those individuals and entities may have discoverable information.

The State Defendants reserve the right to call any witness who is deposed in this case irrespective of whether that witness was formally disclosed by any party.

This identification of individuals does not include those who may be used solely for impeachment purposes.

(ii) A copy--or a description by category and location--of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the disclosing party has in its possession, custody, or control and may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment.

The State Defendants are today producing 19 documents in Milligan via Microsoft OneDrive. Pursuant to an agreement of the parties, these documents are thereby produced in this case as well without the need to produce them twice. The files are password protected, and the password is 30sWis-oduwl The Bates range is SOS154705 through SOS155036.

Included in these documents are five Excel files which were produced on April 10, 2024, but for which the native files were produced as PDFs instead of as Excel spreadsheets. These documents are found at Bates range SOS154705 through SOS154709. The following chart cross-references today's production to the prior one for these five Excel spreadsheets.
