

TOWN OF PIKE ROAD
SWEARING IN CEREMONY
MONDAY, OCTOBER 4TH, 2004
PEACE BAPTIST CHURCH

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 by Mayor Judy Rittenour. She asked councilman Jarrod Williams to lead the invocation. He thanked Mayor Rittenour for her leadership and offered encouragement to the new council members.

Joshua Dunn presented the colors and lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mayor Rittenour said that the last four years have been, in many ways, the best of her life. She said it had been a true honor and pleasure to serve as mayor and she has learned so much. She thanked all those who have helped during the last four years, and reminded those of the bumper stickers that were visible during the incorporation process. She said Pike Road is still the Place To Be!

Mayor Rittenour introduced the Honorable Reese McKinney, probate Judge of Montgomery County. Judge McKinney asked the new council members to come forward with their family members for the oath of office. Councilmen Jay Hinton, Chris Dunn, Charles Julius, and Leroy Tolliver were sworn in. After swearing-in the new members, Mayor Rittenour presented each of them with a Pike Road Town Council name badge.

Councilman Chris Dunn thanked Mayor Rittenour for her service to the town, and then recognized Carrie Tolliver and Lynn Dunn for their work in preparing the reception.

Councilman Jay Hinton moved to postpone organizational duties until the regular meeting on Monday, October 11. Councilman Julius seconded and the council concurred unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned and a reception was held to honor the new council members.

Respectfully submitted;

Ellen Stone
