

NOTICE AND ORDER by Judge Kenly Kiya Kato: The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's Request for the Appointment of a Three-Judge Panel pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284, dkt. 36. However, a three-judge panel "is not required where the district court itself lacks jurisdiction of the complaint or the complaint is not justiciable in the federal courts." Shapiro v. McManus, 577 U.S. 39, 45 (2015) (citation omitted). Further, claims that are "constitutionally insubstantial" do not raise a substantial federal question and may be dismissed by a single judge. Id. at 4546. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the parties to file supplemental briefings addressing the threshold requirements of Article III, specifically: (1) whether Plaintiff has standing, and (2) whether the claims are ripe for adjudication. The parties shall also address whether Plaintiffs claims raise a federal question for jurisdictional purpose under Goosby v. Osser, 409 U.S. 512 (1973). Each party's supplemental brief shall not exceed twelve (12) pages, exclusive of exhibits, and shall be filed no later than October 24, 2025. Plaintiff is expressly warned that failure to comply with this Order may result in dismissal of this action without prejudice for failure to prosecute and comply with Court orders. Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). IT IS SO ORDERED.
