FINAL REPORT OF THE REAPPORTIONMENT COMMISSION

The members of the Reapportionment Commission hereby report that, despite their best efforts, the Commission has been unable to reach agreement on a congressional plan of districting. Although the Commission members continue to discuss proposals that have been exchanged, and will continue to do so even if this Court appoints a special master, the Commission members agree that the matter should now return to this Court in accordance with the provisions of article third, § 6 of the Connecticut constitution, as amended.

The Commission members further report that the Commission has been unable to agree on three names to submit as potential special masters. In order to comply with the Court's prior order, the Democratic and Republican members of the Commission will each file proposed special master names separately through their private counsel.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMBERS OF THE REAPPORTIONMENT
COMMISSION
