

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

Case No. 1:24-cv-21983-JB

CUBANOS PA'LANTE, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

FLORIDA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES and CORD BYRD, in his official capacity as Florida Secretary of State,

Defendants.

PLAINTIFF FIU ACLU CLUB'S SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES' SECOND SET OF INTERROGATORIES

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Local Rules of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida ("Local Rules"), Plaintiff FIU ACLU Club ("Plaintiff" or "FIU ACLU Club"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby supplements its November 18, 2024 responses and objections to Defendant House of Representatives Second Set of Interrogatories ("Interrogatories"), dated October 11, 2024. These responses and objections are made to the best of Plaintiff's present knowledge, information, and belief, and are provided without prejudice to Plaintiff's right to amend, clarify, and/or supplement these responses and objections at a later time for any reason.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Plaintiff's counsel is prepared to meet and confer with the House's counsel about any disputes concerning the meaning, scope, and relevance of the House's Interrogatories or these Responses and Objections.

2. Each response below is on behalf of FIU ACLU Club and no other entity or individual.

3. The following objections are made without waiving but, instead, preserving: (a) the right to raise all questions of, and to object to, the authenticity, competence, foundation, relevancy, materiality, privilege, and/or admissibility of any information or document provided or identified in response to the Interrogatories; (b) the right to object on any ground to the use or introduction into evidence of any information or any document in any subsequent proceeding or in the trial of this or any other action on any ground; and (c) the right to object on any ground at any time to additional discovery.

4. As of the date of this response, Plaintiff has not completed its discovery and investigation of the facts in this case, has not completed its review and production of relevant documents, and has not completed its preparation for summary judgment and, if necessary, trial. Accordingly, the responses and objections set forth below are based on information presently known and reasonably available to Plaintiff at this time after a diligent search and reasonable and good-faith inquiry. Plaintiff reserves the right to: (a) amend, alter, supplement, clarify, or otherwise modify these Responses and Objections; (b) make use of, or introduce at any hearing or trial, any documents, information, facts, evidence, and legal theories which are subsequently discovered or which are now known but whose relevance, significance, or applicability has not yet been ascertained; and (3) offer expert witness opinions or testimony on any relevant matter, which opinions or testimony may be at variance with these Responses and Objections or the documents and information referenced in these Responses and Objections or produced in response to the Requests.

5. The Responses and Objections set forth below shall not be construed as any admission that Plaintiff adopts or agrees with any definition, premise, characterization, or legal conclusion in any Interrogatories.

6. Any inadvertent disclosure of privileged or protected information or documents shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege. The House shall notify Plaintiff of any inadvertently disclosed privileged or protected information or documents pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B) and/or any procedures for doing so in any orders governing discovery in this litigation. The House must not use any privileged or protected information or documents inadvertently disclosed. In addition, nothing herein is intended to be, or should be construed as, a waiver of any privilege.

7. Plaintiff objects to each of the House's Definitions, Instructions, and Interrogatories to the extent that they seek to impose on Plaintiff any obligations not required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, any protocol governing the production of documents and/or information in this action, the orders of this Court, and/or any agreements of the parties with respect to document collection, search, and/or production.

RESPONSE

Plaintiff responds to the House of Representatives' Interrogatory, as follows:

INTERROGATORY NO. 1: Describe how and what information about your decision to initiate this litigation was shared with your membership before you filed your initial complaint, including, for each communication, (i) the date of the communication, (ii) the means of communication, (iii) and the substance of the communication. If no information was shared with your membership about your decision to initiate this litigation, then state so.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1: Plaintiff objects to this Interrogatory because it is improperly compound and contains multiple subparts. Plaintiff responds as follows:

The decision to initiate this litigation was communicated to our members via our club Whatsapp group chat on May 24, 2024, and it was also raised at our in-person General Body Meeting on September 11, 2024. In both instances, we provided the opportunity for students to voice any concerns or questions. No concerns were expressed.

SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1: The decision to initiate this litigation and information about the case were communicated to our members via our club Whatsapp group chat on May 24, 2024, memorialized in CUBANOS-0000000134 to -137. FIU Club members had the opportunity to voice any concerns or questions. No members expressed any concerns.
