Details:

This partial plan of CDs 17-27 takes the Nov. 10 staff-drawn plans and improves Tier Two compliance in South Florida in these significant ways:

- avoid crossing the Everglades, thereby utilizing perhaps the most major geographic boundary in Florida, which also coincides with county boundaries -- a decision adopted by the 2nd Judicial Circuit for the Senate map in 2015, and which all draft Senate maps follow
- make CDs 19 and 25 compact and improve compactness to other districts throughout the region
- make 10 additional cities whole on net (made whole are Ft Myers, Lake Park, Palm Beach, Palm Beach Gardens, Lake Worth Beach, Lantana, Hypoluxo, Margate, Hallandale Beach, Dania Beach, Opalocka, Miami Gardens; newly split are Jupiter and Pembroke Pines)
- eliminate 3 city splits (in Ft Lauderdale, Hollywood, and Miami)
- eliminate CD 20's Boynton Beach appendage (more fully explained in my previously submitted plan that focuses on this modification), while maintaining Black voters' ability to elect candidates of choice in CD 20
- generally use existing major geographic and political boundaries, including Pine Island Sound, the Caloosahatchee R., the Orange R., SR 31, SR 72, SR 804, SR 820, SR 824, the Intracoastal Waterway, US 41, SR 976, SR 953, SR 959, SR 973, and US 1

For CDs 20 and 24: all key statistics, including Black VAP, share of 2020 general registrants, share of 2020 registered Dems, and share of 2020 and 2018 Dem primary voters, are comparable to the benchmarks. Those key statistics in my CD 20 each differ from the staff-drawn district by less than 1.3 points. In CD 24, they are virtually identical, and in fact the Black share of recent Dem primaries happens to be higher in my version.

In each of CDs 25, 26, and 27, the ability of any cohesive Hispanic electorate to elect candidates of choice is not diminished, compared to any such ability in the benchmarks.

I did not use political, elections, or registration data in developing this plan, with the exception of comparing the benchmark, staff-drawn, and my CDs 20, 24, 25, 26, and 27 to ensure no diminishment of minority voters' ability to elect candidates of choice. I did not draw this plan with the intent to favor or disfavor any political party, incumbent, or potential candidate.

I respectfully submit this plan for your consideration. The altered districts can be plugged into any of the staff maps drawn thus far. These proposed districts have 0 population deviations.
