AMENDED INTERVENORS' COMPLAINT

COME NOW Plaintiff Intervenors Walter T. Berry and Lynn Nichols, by and through their attorneys, Foulston Siefkin LLP, and for their causes of action state as follows:

1. Walter T. Berry is a citizen and registered and qualified voter of the United States of America residing at 3550 N. 127th Street East, Wichita, Sedgwick County, Kansas 67226. Berry is a registered voter and votes in Kansas' Fourth Congressional District, the 31st State Senate District, 99th State House District, and the Seventh State Board of Education District. Berry is an active member of the business and civic community in the Wichita, Kansas area, including serving as the current President of the Wichita Chamber of Commerce, and has voted and plans to vote the upcoming election(s).
2. Lynn Nichols is a citizen and registered and qualified voter of the United States of America residing at 2308 Flint Hills National Parkway, Andover, Butler County, Kansas 67002. Nichols is a registered voter and votes in Kansas' Fourth Congressional District, the 16th State Senate District, 99th State House District, and the Eighth Board of Education District. Mr. Nichols (“South-Central Kansas Intervenor”) is an active member of the business and civil community in the Andover, Kansas area, and has voted and plans to vote the upcoming election(s).

3. Defendant Kris W. Kobach is the Secretary of State for the State of Kansas and is responsible under the laws of Kansas for the conduct of elections within the State of Kansas. Defendant is sued solely in his official capacity.
4. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction over this dispute pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(a)(3), 2201, and 2202. A three-judge panel is required for hearing in this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284.
5. The Kansas Legislature has failed to pass and the Governor has been unable to sign the necessary and appropriate legislation to re-apportion Kansas congressional and state voting districts based upon the 2010 Federal Census. As a result, voting districts are unbalanced, causing Berry and Nichols to be deprived of or threatened with the imminent deprivation of Equal Protection of Law and denial of Due Process of the Law in violation of, among others, the United States Constitution.
6. The United States Constitution grants each citizen the right to enjoy representative democracy. Article 1, Section 2 of the United States Constitution requires reapportionment of congressional districts. Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees equal and effective voting rights and privileges to all voters.

7. The current congressional districts violate the United States Constitution by denying Berry and Nichols the right to have and enjoy an equal vote due to the population of the current voting districts.
8. Berry and Nichols and similarly situated citizens and voters have the right to have all members of the United States House of Representatives from the State of Kansas apportioned and elected on the basis of the 2010 Federal Census.
9. Unless lawfully restrained by this Court, inaction by the Legislature will lead to the actual or attempted conduct of the 2012 elections based on the existing congressional districts, thereby violating Berry's and Nichols' constitutional rights and similarly-situated citizens and voters.
10. A justiciable controversy exists because the State of Kansas has failed, through the legislative process, to reapportion the congressional districts in a constitutional manner, thus denying Berry and Nichols their constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, Proposed Plaintiff Intervenors Walter T. Berry and Lynn Nichols respectfully pray for the Order of this Court as follows:

- A. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2284, the Court convene a three-judge panel to adjudicate this matter;
- B. Declare that the present congressional apportionment of the State of Kansas violates the rights of Walter T. Berry and Lynn Nichols under state and federal law, including the United States Constitution;
- C. Issue a permanent injunction and decree that the existing congressional districts may not be utilized for purposes of any 2012 primary or general election and permanently restraining defendant from accepting nominations, issuing certificates of nominations and elections and from any other acts necessary to the holding of election for members of the Kansas delegation to the United States House of Representatives until such time as the Legislature and the Governor adopt a constitutionally-sufficient reapportionment plan or a Court of final jurisdiction has ordered such a plan, all in accordance with the United States Constitution;

D. Award reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, costs, and other expenses incurred in prosecuting this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and

E. Award such other and further relief as deemed equitable and just.

Respectfully submitted,
