Good afternoon,

Thank you for your patience during the ongoing process related to House Bill 1, passed in the 2025 special session by the General Assembly, pertaining to redistricting. At the time of this communication, we have not yet received information files from the Office of Administration.

In the previous redistricting process, our office received the following files from the Office of Administration:

- Updated district boundary shapefiles and related GIS data
- Block Equivalency information

Again, we appreciate your patience and will continue to provide information as received and keep you informed on next steps.
