1           PRESIDENT HUNT: The Senate will come
2 to order. The sergeant-at-arms will close the 3 doors. Members will go to their seats. Members 4 and guests of the gallery will please silence 5 all electronic devices.

6           Leading the Senate in prayer is 7 Senator Eddie Settle of Wilkes county.

8           All members and guests in the gallery
9 will please stand.

10          SENATOR SETTLE: Thank you.

11          Senator Ford, this is coming from the 12 new King James version.

13          Let all bitterness, wrath, anger,
14 clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, 15 with all malice. Be kind to one another, 16 tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as 17 God in Christ forgave you.

18          If you will pray with me.

19          Lord, thank you, thank you for this day
20 and the breath of life that we each have, Lord, 21 that you freely give, Lord, and sound mind that 22 we have. We ask you to lead us today in all 23 decisions that are made that will be pleasing to 24 you. And when we leave this place, we will be 25 united. We love you and we praise you. We ask

1 it all in Jesus name, amen.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Berger is 3 recognized for a motion.

4 SENATOR BERGER: Thank you,
5 Madam President.

6 The journal of September 25, 2025, has 7 been examined and is found to be correct. I'll 8 move that we dispense with the reading of the 9 journal and that it stand approved as written.

10 PRESIDENT HUNT: Without objection, the 11 journal for September 25, 2025, stands approved 12 as written.

13 Leaves of absence are requested and,
14 without objection, are granted for Senators
15 Britt, Burgin, Lowe, Rabon, and Sawyer.

16 Courtesies of the gallery. Upon motion 17 of Senator Brent Jackson of Sampson county, the 18 chair is happy to extend courtesies to Ab and 19 Stephanie Johnson of Pender county. They're the 20 parents of Senator Jackson's research assistant 21 Joe Johnson. Please stand and be recognized.

22 [Applause.]

23 Senator Alexander, for what purpose do
24 you rise?

25 SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you,

1 Madam President.

2 Point of personal privilege to present
3 a senatorial statement out of order.

4 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have leave to 5 proceed.

6 SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you,
7 Madam President.

8 It is truly a privilege and an honor
9 today for me to be able to rise and recognize a 10 constituent of mine, a very special constituent, 11 Ms. Sophia Kellstrom who is the reigning
12 Miss North Carolina. And she's with us today.
13 And she is a native, as I mentioned, of 14 Kings Mountain, North Carolina, a graduate of 15 the University of North Carolina Charlotte with 16 a BA in theater and a concentration in 17 performance.

18 And on June 28th of this year,
19 Ms. Kellstrom was named the 87th
20 Miss North Carolina. And for the talent section 21 of the competition, she performed a vocal of 22 "At Last." And her talent performance also won 23 her the preliminary talent award and the overall 24 vocal talent award.

25 And she has represented several local

1 titles of Miss Metrolina's Outstanding Teen,
2 Miss Gastonia, Miss Metrolina, Miss Mecklenburg
3 County, Miss Asheville, and prior to being 4 Miss North Carolina, Miss Davidson County.

5 She represented us extremely well in 6 the Miss America contest just recently in 7 Orlando, Florida, and our entire community and 8 our state was proud of the way she conducted 9 herself and did such a great job.

10 She is very active in the community,
11 and one of her causes is fighting childhood
12 hunger. And she promotes her community service
13 initiative Make a Change: Fighting Food
14 Insecurity.

15 And I will also add that one of her
16 personal goals is to visit every single 100
17 counties during between now and the end of June 18 of next year, through her reign, and with that 19 she is very open to being requested for coming 20 to your town. So if you have a school or a 21 festival or a church function or some other 22 event, then be sure to get ahold of her. Or if 23 you want to contact me, I'll direct you toward 24 her.

25 But she has represented us so very

1 well, and I thought it would be very fitting
2 today to recognize Sophia Kellstrom.

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: Could Sophia Kellstrom
4 and her mother Malora Kellstrom please stand and 5 be recognized, Miss North Carolina.

6 [Applause.]

7 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Murdock, for
8 what purpose do you rise?

9 SENATOR MURDOCK: For a moment of 10 personal privilege.

11 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor.

12 SENATOR MURDOCK: On your desk you will 13 see a senatorial statement that is recognizing 14 the life and legacy of Ms. Catherine Spearman 15 Ferrell. Catherine Spearman Ferrell, wait for 16 it, was born October 10, 1912, in Warsaw, 17 North Carolina, where she was raised and rooted 18 in a home based in faith, hard work, and 19 pursuing education. Financial limitations
20 prevented her from attending college to pursue 21 her dream of becoming a teacher, but she 22 fulfilled that calling by teaching and mentoring 23 generations.

24 After moving to Durham, North Carolina, 25 in 1945 in search of better opportunities, she

1 and her husband Maynard Ferrell built a home
2 grounded in love, service, devotion. And they 3 have four children that are also here today.

4 She has deep ties to the east end
5 neighborhood, and she has expressed her decades 6 of service and her church communities which 7 include Orange Grove Baptist Church and Mount
8 Gilead Baptist Church. And Senator Woodard
9 actually just let me know that she started the 10 community garden there at Mount Gilead, and 11 remains active civically and let me know today 12 she has never missed an election. We are 13 honored. And when I say has not missed an 14 election, she does not vote curbside. At 15 113 years young, she walks in there and votes 16 every election.

17 Without further ado, she is celebrating 18 113 years of life and to our knowledge is the 19 oldest living North Carolinian. We have 20 Ms. Ferrell here with us on today.

21 PRESIDENT HUNT: So could Mrs. Spearman
22 please stand.

23 [Applause.]

24 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Daniel, for
25 what purpose do you rise?

1 SENATOR DANIEL: Motions.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor for 3 motions.

4 SENATOR DANIEL: I move that all
5 messages from the Senate today be sent to the 6 House by special messenger.

7 And Senate Bill 249, Realign
8 Congressional Districts 2025 was heard in the 9 elections committee today and is in the rules
10 committee. I move that the bill be recalled
11 from rules and placed on today's floor calendar 12 for immediate consideration.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Without objection, so 14 ordered.

15 Senate Bill 249. The clerk will read.

16 THE CLERK: Senate Bill 249, Realign
17 Congressional Districts 2025.

18 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise is 19 recognized to explain the bill.

20 SENATOR HISE: Thank you,
21 Madam President.

22 Members of the committee, Members, 23 before you is the proposed 2025 congressional 24 maps. We had a robust discussion from our 25 members and heard public comments from everyone

1 who signed up to speak earlier today in 2 committee. I will not repeat everything I said
3 in committee, but I will say a few things about 4 the proposed redistricting plan.

5 The motivation behind this draw was to 6 produce a new map that will bring an additional 7 Republican seat to North Carolina's 8 congressional delegation.

9 Republicans hold a razor-thin majority 10 in the US House of Representatives, and if 11 Democrats flip four seats in the upcoming 12 midterm elections, they will take control of the 13 House and torpedo President Trump's agenda.

14 President Trump has called on 15 Republican-controlled states across the country 16 to redraw congressional districts, and this map 17 answers that call.

18 On the issue of race that several 19 members have brought up this morning, to be 20 clear, consistent with practices this decade, in 21 2023 and 2021, absolutely no racial data was 22 used in the creation of this map. I explained 23 in committee about the dangers of using race in 24 drawing maps. If legislators draw districts
25 predominantly based on race without a compelling

1 interest, those districts would be declared
2 illegal racial gerrymanders.

3 As for the Voting Rights Act, in order
4 for a predominant use of race to be justified 5 under Section 2, there must be a strong basis in 6 evidence of three Gingles preconditions. Even 7 assuming the presence of three Gingles
8 conditions, the use of race to draw districts 9 must also be supported by a totality of the 10 evidence. That was true and it's true now.

11 Past decisions and court records
12 demonstrate there is no evidence of the three 13 Gingles preconditions in North Carolina. In 14 fact, just weeks ago a federal court told us in 15 a case concerning the senate districts in the 16 northeastern part of the state that there was no
17 evidence of legally significant racially 18 polarized voting that would require a 19 majority-minority district.

20 In the absence of any evidence of the 21 three Gingles preconditions, the chairs elected 22 not to use race in the drawing of these proposed 23 districts strictly to protect the state from 24 lawsuits alleging illegal racial gerrymandering.

25 To be clear, the chairs do not believe

1 that the use of racial data would have been 2 helpful in reaching any political or other 3 legislative redistricting goal. Any political 4 considerations in line drawing have been 5 informed by political data and not racial data.

6 Now, the plan before you. The new 7 congressional districts makes no changes to 12
8 of the 14 districts. The only districts that 9 are changed in the new map are NC 1 and NC 3.

10 The changes in new congressional plan
11 consist of the following: Greene, Lenoir,
12 Wayne, and Wilson counties are moved from NC 1
13 to NC 3.

14 Beaufort, Carteret, Craven, Dare, Hyde, 15 and Pamlico counties are moved from NC 3 to 16 NC 1.

17 Following that, to balance the 18 populations of the two districts, 4,853 people, 19 according to the 2020 census, in Onslow county, 20 that's 2.4 percent of the population, are moved 21 from NC 3 to NC 1. That split occurs in the 22 Swansboro precinct, leaving as much of the town
23 in one district NC 1 as possible, minimizing 24 municipal split.

25 As I stated previously, the motivation

1 behind this new plan is straightforward: The 2 congressional map improves Republican political 3 strength in eastern North Carolina. It moves
4 NC 1 from a district where President Trump
5 earned 51 percent of the vote in 2024 to one 6 that would have earned 55 percent of the vote, 7 an increase of four points.

8 To balance Republican strength, NC 3
9 loses the same amount as NC 1 gains, four 10 points, moving it from 60 percent
11 President Trump performance in the previous map 12 to 56 percent in the new map.

13 The end result is a congressional map
14 that should elect 11 Republicans. Not only does 15 the new congressional map better improve 16 Republican political strength in eastern 17 North Carolina giving Republican candidates a 18 better opportunity to win NC 1, the new map
19 adheres to all traditional redistricting
20 principles. You all can remove the compactness 21 reports, but the bottom line is the map is more 22 compact than the 2023 map in all recognized 23 manners.

24 I did also want to state, there may 25 have been some confusion what I said in the 1 committee this morning, age data was also not 2 available in the data system. Even though there 3 was no prohibition from that, it was not 4 available in the data that was available.

5 And that being said, Members, I would 6 suggest -- ask for your support for this bill as 7 we continue to move forward. Thank you.

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Grafstein, for
9 what purpose do you rise?

10 SENATOR GRAFSTEIN: To speak to the 11 bill.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
13 speak to the bill.

14 SENATOR GRAFSTEIN: Thank you,
15 Madam President.

16 In elections today, the elections
17 committee, the bill sponsor said, and said again 18 today, the motivation behind this redraw is 19 simple and singular, to deliver another seat to 20 Republicans. And I do appreciate that 21 directness. Even as people rub their eyes and 22 check their ears in disbelief, it's good that 23 there's no effort to gaslight anyone on this 24 point. We all understand that this is 25 gerrymandering or as some people are calling it,

1 DEI for Republicans.

2 The bill sponsor also said "This is a
3 political arms race" -- this was in elections 4 today. "This is a political arms race that 5 Republicans did not start."

6 And I need to correct the record here
7 because that's not correct. As Senator Mayfield 8 said in committee, Texas started this dance.

9 On June 9th of this year, the New York
10 Times reported the following:

11 President Trump's political team is 12 encouraging Republican leaders in Texas to 13 examine how House district lines in the state 14 could be redrawn ahead of next year's midterm
15 elections to try to save the party's endangered 16 majority according to people in Texas and 17 Washington who are familiar with the effort.

18 A person close to the president urged
19 a, quote, ruthless approach and said Mr. Trump 20 would welcome any chance to pick up seats in the 21 midterms. The president would pay close
22 attention to those in his party who help or hurt 23 that effort, the person warned.

24 On June 11th, the Texas Tribune
25 reported the idea, referring to the redraw, is

1 being driven by President Donald Trump's 2 political advisors who want to draw up new maps 3 that would give Republicans a better chance to 4 flip seats currently held by Democrats. That 5 proposal, which would involve shifting GOP 6 voters from safely red districts into 7 neighboring blue ones, is aimed at safeguarding 8 Republicans thin majority in congress where they 9 control the lower chamber 220 to 212.

10           Apparently, it took some convincing to 11 get Texas Republicans on board with the plan
12 which I think is saying a lot, but by July 9th 13 of this year, Governor Abbott of Texas called 14 for redistricting in the announcement of his 15 agenda for the Texas legislature.

16           According again to the Texas Tribune, 17 Abbott's call includes redrawing the state's 18 congressional districts, following through on a 19 demand from President Donald Trump's advisors
20 who want to fortify Republican's slim majority 21 in the US House by carving out more GOP seats in 22 Texas.

23           In early August, there was an 24 additional push to grab additional seats for the 25 GOP through redistricting in Indiana and

1 Missouri, all at the behest of DC Republicans.
2 Missouri has followed through and DC
3 Republicans, including the vice president,
4 continue to pressure Indiana to do the same.

5 On August 14th, more than a month after 6 Governor Abbott called a special session to 7 redistrict there, California announced a plan to 8 counter the open and obvious attack on our 9 democracy by putting new California maps to a 10 vote of the people. Because California has 11 previously changed its system away from partisan
12 redistricting to a citizen redistricting
13 commission, the voters of that state will decide 14 whether to counter the assault from Republicans.

15 In addition to referring to this as a 16 political arms race, we were also told that this 17 bill is to fight fire with fire. That's what 18 was said in committee. It is beyond dispute 19 that Republicans started the fire. They poured 20 the gasoline. They lit the match. They ignited 21 the fire and are watching it burning. They're 22 bragging about it, openly kowtowing and pleading 23 with the president to notice how obedient they 24 are.

25 Pitting states against each other,

1 pitting Americans against each other, pitting
2 North Carolinians against each other, for what, 3 to hold power. It's foolish and pathetic to 4 forfeit your dignity and your morals to cling to 5 power or to forget your dignity and your morals 6 to prove you're a good little boy or girl who 7 will do what they are told even if it violates 8 their oath to serve the people of this state.

9 It's grasping. It's desperate. If 10 you're not prepared to lose, don't run, whatever 11 party you are. Have some self-respect.
12 Admitting that you can't win without cheating is 13 truly sad and small. It makes you look foolish.

14 The statement that Republicans did not 15 start this arms race isn't correct. I believe 16 it will be appropriate for the bill sponsor or 17 someone else to retract that statement. Let's 18 be fully honest about what's happening here.

19 Thank you, Madam President.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Salvador --

21 Sorry, folks. Sorry. No, we cannot 22 have that. I'm sorry. I know you have strong 23 feelings, but we've got to keep it quiet.

24 All right. Senator Salvador, for what 25 purpose do you rise?

1           SENATOR SALVADOR: To speak to the
2 bill.

3           PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
4 speak to the bill.

5           SENATOR SALVADOR: Thank you,
6 Madam President.

7           I wish I could say that I was standing 8 here to debate the bill, but I think it's time 9 that we be honest, and we're not debating the 10 map today because the Republicans have made 11 their decision far and long ago. And this is 12 the product of a process that was designed to 13 tilt outcomes before a single ballot is cast, to 14 weaken competition, and to isolate opposition, 15 devised to entrench political power at the 16 expense of meaningful representation.

17           And unfortunately, this bill signals
18 that to them it is not about fair
19 representation, and I genuinely think it's time 20 that we be honest about the damages that this 21 will cause and we've already seen cause to our 22 state.

23           This costs us trust, the public trust.
24 When lines are drawn behind closed doors, rushed 25 through just days that can impact years, no true

1 public input, people can lose faith that their 2 voices will be genuinely heard. And witness
3 throughout time when people stop believing, 4 unfortunately, they may stop showing up. And 5 that's not apathy, that is disenfranchisement by 6 design. That is what we're seeing here through 7 these very maps today.

8 And we have to think about what this 9 will cost all the people that we're elected to 10 serve in our state. Clearer than day, this is a 11 premeditation meant to silence communities. It 12 costs us choice. Because when maps are drawn in 13 a way that predetermine outcomes, they are a 14 theft of the very choice that we should be 15 seeing when we go to the ballot box.

16 If the outcome is already baked in,
17 then fair representation for impacted
18 communities, especially black and minority
19 communities, is being effectively erased. No 20 genuine need to truly try to earn support, not 21 as much pressure for representatives to step up 22 for the people that they represent. And in the 23 very worst case scenarios that we see, elected 24 officials who are de facto crowned without 25 having to ever really earn the public's support,

1 and that's just not right. That is just not 2 just, which we see already can lead to real cost 3 and impact for our state.

4 While communities across North Carolina
5 are asking -- no, they are begging us to do
6 everything we can to have a functioning budget, 7 to have fully funded public schools, to deliver 8 everything we got to see real solutions, we are 9 standing here first and foremost seeing that 10 this Republican leadership body has chosen to 11 instead spend time to rush through maps without 12 public input, without going into the community 13 to hear additional comments, to silence the 14 people that we are meant to serve.

15 A recent Duke University study confirms 16 it: These maps are not responsive to the 17 public. They are not drawn in a way to reflect 18 shifting opinions or perhaps the changing needs 19 of communities that they may face. They are 20 drawn to lock in power.

21 North Carolina deserves better. We all 22 deserve better. We deserve representation that 23 is earned, not stolen; leadership that listens, 24 not insulates itself. We have a duty to respond 25 to the people and not form power that will keep

1 us from that very thing.

2 This moment calls for good leadership,
3 better leadership, not just what you think you 4 can potentially get away with here, but what's 5 right for North Carolina and the communities 6 that we serve.

7 And with that, I urge my colleagues to 8 vote no.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Meyer, for
10 what purpose do you rise?

11 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you,
12 Madam President. I'd like to debate the bill.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to 14 debate the bill.

15 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you,
16 Madam President.

17 I'd like to begin my debate by asking 18 Senator Berger if he would be willing to answer 19 three questions.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Berger, do you
21 yield?

22 SENATOR BERGER: As I was not involved
23 in the drawing of the map, I had no involvement
24 at all, and I would suggest that any questions 25 about the map or about the process employed be

1 directed to Senator Hise. So I do not yield.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: He does not yield.

3 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you,
4 Madam President.

5 I'd be happy to direct my questions to
6 Senator Hise.

7 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, do you
8 yield?

9 SENATOR HISE: Absolutely.

10 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

11 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you,
12 Senator Hise.

13 Senator Hise, to the best of your 14 knowledge, did you, your staff here at the 15 General Assembly or your political staff or the 16 General Assembly staff or political staff of any 17 Republican member of the legislature have 18 conversations about this redistricting process 19 with the president of the United States or any 20 of his White House staff or political staff?

21 SENATOR HISE: I can answer I've had no
22 conversations with the president or his staff 23 members or others regarding these maps or 24 others. I have no awareness of individual 25 conversations.

1 I am aware of communications over
2 social media and other things in which there 3 were general requests of the president to make 4 draws or his support for this, but I was not 5 involved in any other direct conversations.

6 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you. I wonder if 7 Senator Hise will yield to a second question.

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield?

9 SENATOR HISE: I yield.

10 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

11 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you,
12 Senator Hise.

13 During the process of drawing these 14 maps or planning to draw these maps, were you or 15 any of your staff or anyone that you know or any 16 of their staff in communication with Alex
17 Kincaid or anyone else from the National 18 Republican Redistricting Trust?

19 SENATOR HISE: I'm actually not aware 20 of who those individuals are. I have not had 21 any of those conversations. I'm not aware of 22 those conversations.

23 SENATOR MEYER: Okay. I wonder if 24 Senator Hise will yield for a third question,
25 Madam President.

1 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield?

2 SENATOR HISE: I yield.

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

4 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you.

5 Senator Hise, to the best of your
6 knowledge, was Senator Berger or anyone else
7 involved in this process participating in order 8 to receive political support up to and including 9 endorsement from the president of the 10 United States in exchange for this 11 gerrymandering process?

12 SENATOR HISE: I yielded and I would 13 say up front, I've already stated I had no
14 knowledge of any conversation. That would be a 15 very specific conversation, so the answer 16 remains no.

17 SENATOR MEYER: Okay. Thank you,
18 Senator Hise.

19 Thank you, Madam President. May I
20 proceed.

21 PRESIDENT HUNT: Sure. Speak on the
22 bill.

23 SENATOR MEYER: Thank you.

24 Ladies and gentlemen of North Carolina,
25 the questions that I have asked I believe

1     deserve to be asked of Senator Berger and every 2     other Republican in this room so that you have a 3     full understanding of the way that this public 4     process of redistricting has very important and 5     powerful mechanisms moving behind closed doors,
6     but today, if we take Senator Hise at his word,
7     what we have learned is that Trump's Republicans 8     here in North Carolina will do his bidding even 9     without him bothering to talk to them or beg or 10    ask of them anything. That's how beholden they 11    are.

12             In America, we do not have kings, and 13    the reason we don't have kings is because kings 14    do not take care of their people. Kings deliver 15    unto themselves rather than delivering unto the 16    people that are below them. And one of the 17    reasons why in America we have legislatures is 18    to ensure that we have no kings, but this 19    legislature is granting power not only to the 20    federal government but to the president of the 21    United States in order to ensure that they 22    advance his agenda, as was said on the floor
23    here today.

24             Power to an infirm 78-year-old man, a 25    convicted felon, an egomaniac who is so

1       disrespectful to the people of the United States 2       as to release a video of himself dumping shit on 3       their heads, so cruel as to advance an agenda
4       that drives up your prices for groceries, drives 5       up your housing costs, will double your 6       healthcare premiums.

7               The level of cruelty coming out of the 8       presidency is a stunning aberration for the 9       history of the United States, and this set of 10      Republicans want to enshrine that through 11      cheating to enact that cruelty on the people of 12      North Carolina.

13              We deserve better because we are 14      Americans and Americans have no kings.

15              PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Chaudhuri, for
16      what purpose do you rise?

17              SENATOR CHAUDHURI: To debate the bill,
18      Madam President.

19              PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to 20      debate the bill.

21              SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you,
22      Madam President.

23              Madam President, before I speak on the 24      bill, I wanted to see if the bill sponsor, 25      Senator Hise, will be willing to answer a series

1 of questions.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Will you yield,
3 Senator Hise?

4 SENATOR HISE: I will yield.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: He will yield.

6 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Senator Hise, thank 7 you. I know you've answered a number of 8 questions earlier this morning.

9 To refresh your memory, during the 10 committee meeting this morning, Leader Batch 11 actually corrected the record regarding the 12 statement that Democrats redrew the maps in the 13 mid decade without court order, and I believe as 14 now has been introduced into the record, based 15 on the New York Times article, it's now been 16 shown that the 1960s maps that were redrawn were 17 not -- were actually court ordered.

18 Do you agree with that?

19 SENATOR HISE: Senator Chaudhuri, I
20 have looked no further into -- I don't deny what 21 Senator Batch says or accepted. I merely took 22 the article that said Democrats had drawn the 23 districts in the mid '60s at its face value and 24 I think presented it as such, that the article 25 had made that claim.

1 I have taken no further steps to 2 research that matter or whatever else but do not 3 deny Senator Batch's claim that there was some 4 sort of court proceedings that led to that 5 redraw.

6 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you,
7 Senator Hise.

8 So just assuming that the article
9 introduced in the record is true, could you then 10 tell us when was the last time we did non-court 11 ordered mid decade redistricting in the state?

12 SENATOR HISE: And I yield. 2024 there
13 was no court order for us to redraw the maps.
14 The maps that the courts had ordered expired 15 after two years in that process, but there was 16 no direct order from the court for us to draw 17 those maps. 2023, I think it was, for 2024.

18 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: The 2024 maps
19 you're saying were not court ordered?

20 SENATOR HISE: That's correct. The 21 courts put in their own maps for two years and 22 that injunction ended following that election, 23 and we made the choice to draw districts at that 24 point without being specifically ordered by the 25 courts to do so.

1           PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Chaudhuri, do
2 you have another question?

3           SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Yes.

4           PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield,
5 Senator Hise?

6           SENATOR HISE: Yes.

7           PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

8           SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you,
9 Madam President.

10           I mean, regardless, the 2024 maps were 11 the result of an injunction expiring which were 12 still the result of a court order, I would 13 argue.

14           But as a follow-up question,
15 Senator Hise, why did you choose to draw this 16 particular map?

17           SENATOR HISE: I think I've been clear
18 every time I've stated this. We took this map 19 to draw one additional congressional 20 representative that would be a Republican to 21 represent North Carolina in congress.

23 Madam President.

24           PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield?

25           SENATOR HISE: I yield.

1 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

2 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: And so obviously,
3 given the ruling by the United States Supreme 4 Court, I mean, this map was drawn to pick up one
5 additional Republican congressional seat, 6 correct?

7 SENATOR HISE: The Supreme Court
8 rulings of both the federal and state I think 9 have been clear, that redistricting is a 10 political process done by the state
11 legislatures, and part of that political process
12 we have taken that opportunity.

14 Madam President.

15 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield?

16 SENATOR HISE: I yield.

17 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise yields.

18 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: So given -- I mean, 19 given the political gain for an additional 20 congressional Republican seat, I'm curious as to 21 why you didn't draw a map that had 12
22 Republicans and 2 Democrats.

23 SENATOR HISE: In we have things that 24 we call traditional redistricting principles 25 which requires districts to be contiguous with

1 each other, to create districts that are of 2 equal population and those type of things, and I 3 believe that those specific requirements and 4 others has placed this map at the level at which 5 I think we can still maintain those traditional 6 redistricting principles.

8 Madam President.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield,
10 Senator Hise?

11 SENATOR HISE: I yield.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

13 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: I'm curious why you
14 didn't draw a congressional map with 13 15 Republicans and 1 Democrat.

16 SENATOR HISE: Same answer.

17 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Same answer.
18 Follow-up, Madam President.

19 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield,
20 Senator Hise?

21 SENATOR HISE: I yield.

22 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

23 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Senator Hise, I
24 believe in 2023 you introduced a map with 11 25 Democrats and 3 Republicans. I'm kind of

1 testing your memory, but you're pretty good at 2 redrawing maps here. So why did you not 3 consider that map at this time? That was 4 Senate Bill 756.

5 SENATOR HISE: The ability to draw this 6 map had a disruption of only two congressional 7 districts which, as I stated earlier, leaves 12 8 congressional districts unchanged across the 9 state so that we could do it with minimal 10 impact.

11 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you.

12 Follow-up, Madam President.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, do you
14 yield?

16 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

17 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Just a couple more
18 questions, Senator Hise. I appreciate it.

19 Why did the -- why did the committee
20 draw Congressman Davis out of his district?

21 SENATOR HISE: I believe congressman --
22 first of all, in North Carolina, we have no 23 requirement that any member of congress live in 24 any particular district within the state.

25 Clearly, Congressman Davis is still

1 residing in North Carolina, still resides in a 2 congressional district and is free to run for 3 any of those districts.

4 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you.

5 Two more follow-ups, Madam President.

6 PRESIDENT HUNT: Do you yield for two 7 more, Senator Hise?

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: He yields.

10 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you,
11 Senator Hise.

12 Senator Hise, these maps, as we know, 13 were posted on the legislative website on 14 Thursday. Did you share this map with anyone in 15 the congressional delegation, in particular 16 Congressman Davis or Congressman Murphy?

17 SENATOR HISE: To my knowledge, these 18 maps, other than when they were made public, 19 have not been shared with any member of congress 20 or their staff individually.

21 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Thank you,
22 Senator Hise.

23 Madam President, I would speak to the 24 bill.

25 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to

1 speak to the bill.

2 SENATOR CHAUDHURI: Madam President,
3 I'm looking -- I'm looking at this 4 congressional -- current congressional map, and 5 I'm reminded of what District 1 in northeastern
6 part of our state known as the Black Belt
7 represents. And for more than three decades, 8 District 1 has represented some of the largest 9 majority black counties and rural counties.

10 For three decades, this district has 11 elected trailblazers like Eva Clayton, the first 12 African American to represent our state in the 13 United States House of Representatives since 14 1899 and would go on to represent the 15 United Nations in Rome.

16 It is the district that represented
17 Congressman GK Butterfield, the distinguished 18 civil rights lawyer, a member of the state 19 Supreme Court who would go on to chair the 20 Congressional Black Caucus.

21 And today, without any transparency to 22 drawing maps, with the stroke of a computer key 23 or two, with this vote today, the Republican 24 majority will carve up northeastern 25 North Carolina into two districts and erase the 1 common bonds of history and hope.

2 Today, Republicans will vote to erase
3 Congressman Don Davis's district, a fifth 4 generation North Carolinian, a Presbyterian
5 minister, an Air Force Academy graduate, a 6 former colleague of ours, and a Democrat with 7 the most conservative voting record among his 8 Democrats.

9 Most of you know, Congressman Davis
10 because you served with him, and you know that 11 he embodies and reflects eastern North Carolina 12 conservatism, and he embodies the history and 13 hope of that congressional district.

14 But today, you'd rather erase the 15 congressional district of history and hope 16 because your party hasn't beaten Don Davis in 17 two election cycles. And so rather than -- so 18 rather, you draw Republican congressional 19 district. You'd rather steal one more district 20 for Republicans in Washington, DC. You've 21 decided to erase and silence the voices of 22 hundreds of thousands of black voters in 23 northeastern North Carolina to satisfy the 24 request of one Donald Trump.

25 Redrawing this map is like winning --

1 it's like the winning football team deciding in 2 the second half of the game that it's going to 3 change the rules again so it can guarantee and 4 do everything it can not just to win the game
5 but to run up the score as high as possible.
6 And for anybody who coaches, we know that's 7 something that we don't teach our children.

8 This map represents the highest and 9 most egregious form of unadulterated and 10 unfettered partisan power grab that I've 11 witnessed in my nine years serving in the 12 senate. It's the most egregious because we're 13 not here drawing maps because of a court order, 14 we're not here because of the census, we're here 15 because Donald Trump directed our legislative 16 leaders to redraw the map.

17 Our legislative leaders decided to 18 retaliate against the voters of Congressional 19 District 1 who expressed their political will at 20 the ballot box during the 2024 election to make 21 sure they can't make that same choice again.

22 And today, I challenge each and every 23 one of us to exercise the oath we took, the oath 24 we took not to Donald Trump but to the 25 constitution.

1           In 2020, when Donald Trump asked
2       Georgia legislative leaders to go find him 3       12,000 votes to overturn the election, they 4       refused.

5           In 2020, when Donald Trump asked
6       Republican Michigan legislative leaders to 7       overturn the elections and name Michigan
8       electors for Trump, they refused.

9           Will you exercise your oath to Donald 10      Trump or the constitution like these brave and 11      courageous leaders in Georgia and Michigan?

12          So let me conclude by saying this: Our 13      constitution says We the People. The 14      Gettysburg Address concluded by saying 15      Government of the people, by the people, for the 16      people.

17          James Madison wrote that the power in 18      the people of the -- James Madison wrote that 19      the power is in the people over the government 20      and not in the government over the people.

21          Free and fair elections at regular 22      intervals is a key principle to our democracy.
23      Today's redrawing of congressional districts
24      make these congressional elections meaningless 25      because you've rigged the outcome, and in the

1 process, you haven't given power to the people
2 over the government, you've given Donald Trump
3 power over the people. I urge you to vote
4 against these maps.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Lowe is noted
6 to be in the chamber.

7 Senator Waddell, for what purpose do
8 you rise?

9 SENATOR WADDELL: Thank you very much.
10 To debate the bill.

12 debate the bill.

13 SENATOR WADDELL: You know, we know a 14 lot about redistricting, and we also know that 15 redistricting can be abused. You know there's a 16 name for that: Gerrymandering. That is why
17 many states use clear criteria, like equal 18 population, compactness, respect for communities
19 of interest, transparency, and a robust public 20 input to keep the process fair, yet here today, 21 the majority leadership is redistricting while 22 failing to pass a state budget. We need to be 23 thinking more about that budget than 24 redistricting.

25 That choice has real world

1 consequences, and I'll tell you why. State
2 employees are left without clarity on pay
3 raises. Teachers just don't know what to do.
4 They're waiting for us, and here we are doing
5 something else. And cost-of-living adjustment, 6 agencies cannot fill vacancies or plan training.
7 Schools and universities face hiring and program
8 uncertainty. And health and human services
9 partners are forced to pause urgently needed 10 services, while politics leap to the front of 11 the line. And you know something else, when 12 that happens, the budget is left behind.

13 Public servants and the communities
14 they serve pay the price. So every ten years we 15 redraw the lines that determine who speaks for 16 us in congress in our state. At its best,
17 redistricting is a civic tune-up, an opportunity 18 to align representation where people actually 19 live, where they work, and, of course, you know, 20 where they raise their families.

21 But, you know, sometimes we see it at 22 its worst. And at its worst, it becomes an 23 exercise in raw power. That's not what we want.
24 We're in this state, we're better than that.
25 When it becomes raw power, where one party uses

1 sophisticated software to lock in advantages and 2 lock out voters, we don't want to lock out
3 voters. We need voters, and they expect us to 4 be fair.

5 That process and that practice, what it 6 does, it flips the promise of democracy on its 7 head in a healthy system. Voters choose their 8 representatives. On the gerrymandering, 9 representatives choose their voters.

10 And you know something else that 11 gerrymandering does, it dilutes the weight of 12 our votes. It fuels polarization and gridlock.
13 It diminishes the ability of historically 14 underrepresented communities to elect candidates 15 of their choice.

16 And we say we are country, we're 17 legislating of the people, for the people, and 18 by the people. We must show that in practice.

19 So if gerrymandering is the misuse of 20 redistricting, how can we use redistricting and 21 make it a good thing? We can. The answer is 22 simple: If we want to make it a good thing, set 23 fair rules, use an open process, and hold 24 ourselves measurable. And some of those 25 standards that can be used to be measurable,

1 number one, clear, balanced criteria, a
2 transparent process where everybody can 3 participate, everybody, every adult, every voter 4 needs to be able to participate.

5 Independent checks and expert tools,
6 protection of communities of interest,
7 structures that build stability and 8 accountability.

9 Now, those are some principles.
10 They're good ones. Why can't we follow them?

11 Redistricting becomes a tool for 12 representation. It's not to be used any other 13 way. Good maps, think about them. We need good 14 maps.

15 So when we think about our outcomes, we 16 think about the people and good governance,
17 finishing the people's budget so state employees 18 have the pay. They keep asking us. I get 19 letters every day from state employees,
20 educators, people who work in law enforcement.
21 They want a budget. They want to know what 22 their dollars are going to be, and here we are 23 doing something else.

24 This is not a fantasy. It's standards
25 we can set. We have the data, the technology,

1 and the public expects us to do the right thing.
2 And so let's choose a path that invites more 3 people in that reflects our communities of 4 dignity and keeps faith and the simple promise
5 at the heart of self government. And we believe 6 and we know that every person counts and every 7 vote should matter and every state employee 8 deserves a budget that respects their service, 9 their dignity, their worth.

10 So thank you so much for allowing me to 11 share this with you.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Smith, for
13 what purpose do you rise?

14 SENATOR SMITH: I would like to debate
15 this bill.

17 debate the bill.

18 SENATOR SMITH: Thank you so much,
19 Madam Chair.

20 I'm speaking today not just as a 21 senator but as a black woman and as someone who 22 represents communities that have far too long 23 been targeted and harmed by those in power who 24 fear the voices at the ballot box.

25 Everyone in this chamber knows that

1 this redistricting proposal is not just a map,
2 it's a message, and that the message is loud
3 center clear. It says we will divide your 4 communities, we will dilute your voice, we will 5 move the lines again and again however we see 6 fit until your vote and your voice no longer 7 matters.

8 This -- this is nothing new and to a
9 degree it's not surprising. It's a continuation 10 of a strategy we all know too well in 11 North Carolina, one where power is preserved not 12 by the will of the people but by the 13 manipulation of our political maps by cynical, 14 scared politicians.

15 So let's call this exactly what it is:
16 This is an attack on black voters. Again, this 17 is an attack on black voters, and it's one that 18 goes back decades. Let's remember the record in 19 the Gingles case in 1984. A federal court found 20 that North Carolina had officially and 21 effectively discriminated against black citizens 22 in matters touching their exercises of the 23 voting franchise. That was more than 40 years 24 ago, and yet we're doing the same thing today.

25 In Holmes versus Moore just a few years

1     ago, our own court of appeals reminded us that 2     state officials continued in their efforts to 3     restrict or dilute African American voting 4     strength well after 1980 and up to the present 5     day.

6             The McCrory case in 2016 exposed 7     exactly how far this body is willing to go to 8     suppress the black vote by targeting us with 9     what the court called surgical precision.

10            And now with these new maps in 2025,
11    black voters are being targeted again. Counties 12    in my region, Pitt, Beaufort, Edgecombe, are 13    being sliced, swapped, and shuffled into two 14    districts not because it serves the people but 15    the party in power has decided that it serves 16    them.

17            The goal here is to undermine the black 18    electorate, silence rural black voices and 19    secure seats not by merit but by manipulation.

20            This redistricting move is not about 21    fairness, it's about fear, fear over the fact 22    that black voters, working people and eastern 23    North Carolinians had a voice to demand the 24    change that we deserve. It's about stealing 25    elections by design so that the outcomes are

1 predetermined and accountability becomes 2 optional.

3 I represent people who work two or 4 three jobs just to make ends meet, folks who are 5 raising their children, caring for aging 6 parents, and they still somehow find the time to 7 vote despite the hurdles that are placed in 8 their way. Nobody is asking for special 9 treatment here. Well, I can't say nobody 10 because we know with these maps who's asking for 11 special treatment.

12 But what people are asking for is 13 fairness. They want what the constitution 14 guarantees, the right to speak their truth to 15 power. They want what democracy demands, an 16 equal opportunity to choose their leaders. They 17 want what our ancestors bled for, a voice and a 18 vote that counts.

19 So to those who drew this map, I ask 20 you what are you afraid of? Are you afraid of 21 more black voters at the polls? I'll answer it.
22 Absolutely. Are you afraid of more justice and 23 inclusive North Carolina? I'll answer that for 24 you too. Absolutely. Are you afraid of voters 25 who know and truly represent them and those who

1 don't? Because I'll tell you what I'm afraid
2 of, I'm afraid of the ignorant complicity that 3 seems to have infected this body and the 4 willingness of my colleagues to give up any 5 sense of a fight for what is good and what is 6 right.

7           So today I speak not just for myself 8 but for every voter who refuses to be ignored, 9 every child who deserves to grow up in a 10 democracy where their voice matters, and every 11 community that is sick and tired of being used 12 as a pawn in somebody else's power game. We see 13 what you're doing, and we will not be silent.

14           And listening to my peer, Senator 15 Chaudhuri, asking questions about why are we 16 selecting Congressman Don Davis's seat. He 17 served with many of you right here on this 18 Senate floor, worked across aisles. This is 19 amazing. I just want to know that my dear
20 friend Congressman Don Davis, he is the first 21 African American graduate of the US Air Force 22 Academy in its history that's elected to 23 congress. He is someone who served on this 24 floor and fought with you. He is someone who 25 worked across the aisles. He did not turn his

1 back, a lot of times frustrated others, but 2 wanted to make sure he was working to serve all
3 North Carolinians, and this is what we do. This 4 is the thanks.

5 But I guess if I received a call from 6 the people of the president or maybe the 7 president himself, I guess if I wanted to be 8 endorsed in an election, these are the type 9 things that I would do. Sad to say the least, 10 but again, we will not be silent. I urge to 11 vote against this. Thank you.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed, for
13 what purpose do you rise?

14 SENATOR MOHAMMED: To speak on the 15 bill, Madam President.

17 speak on the bill.

18 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Thank you,
19 Madam President.

20 Colleagues, I rise today on behalf of 21 the people of Senate District 38, the fourth 22 iteration of such a district since I've been in 23 the North Carolina senate.

24 From this seat -- and the reason I
25 bring this seat up is because this seat does not

1 belong to me. Your seat does not belong to you.
2 It belongs to the people, and that's why I rise 3 today. The people. And I rise today in the 4 shadow of a dark, deliberate plot, a plot to 5 strip black communities and working families
6 across North Carolina of their right to choose 7 their own representatives without interference, 8 intimidation, or deceit.

9 This new congressional map does not 10 protect our voices. It predetermines an 11 election outcome. It rigs the outcomes before 12 the first ballot is even cast and then dares to 13 call that democracy.

14 For more than a decade, our neighbors
15 in the east have been pushed to the margins, 16 forced to live under maps drawn to dilute their 17 voices and divide their strength.

18 You dared them to vote against you 19 before when you created a 10/4 map, and 20 now -- and now you've effectively silenced their 21 vote altogether with this new shameful
22 gerrymander. This assembly has become a
23 machine, not of representation but of control, a 24 regime of suppression disguised as governance.
25 And the shameful part is -- the shameful part is

1 you're not even hiding it any more.

2 First, you dismantle public financing
3 of judicial elections in our state, then you
4 made judicial races partisan, then you
5 eliminated district court and superior court
6 judges that you didn't like, then you crafted a 7 racist voter ID law so discriminatory that the 8 federal courts stepped in and said again that 9 you targeted African Americans with surgical 10 precision.

11 You -- you did this. You even tried to 12 stop Souls to the Polls because you couldn't 13 stand that black North Carolinians exercised 14 their faith and their freedom on the same day.

15 When that wasn't enough, you ban
16 out-of-precinct ballots, you force the state's 17 attorney general to defend your schemes. Now 18 you hand control of the county board of 19 elections and tell them to determine what's 20 going to happen on Sunday voting and pretend 21 that it's local control. Now anyone can 22 challenge a neighbor's ballot pretending it's 23 integrity. Now you've eliminated a once
24 bipartisan grace period for mail-in absentee 25 ballots even though you know nothing is

1 delivered by mail on time.

2 You turned a once independently drawn
3 congressional map 7/7 that fairly represented
4 all North Carolinians into the current 5 gerrymandered 10/4 map, silencing and silencing 6 communities across this state, and still -- and 7 still that wasn't enough. That wasn't enough.

8 Now you schemed an 11th seat out of a 9 14 congressional seat delegation just to give 10 President Trump an extra -- an extra yes man.

11 Let's not pretend this is about policy.
12 If it were, you would make your case to the 13 people of North Carolina on the issues that 14 matter to them, on the merits through honest 15 debate, but when you can't win on the issues, 16 when you can't win on the merits, you have to 17 cheat because this isn't about policy, this is 18 about power, pure, unrestrained power.

19 Who does this rigged map really 20 represent? Not the first year teacher eager to 21 shape young minds in our great state while 22 struggling to pay rent; not the thousands of 23 North Carolinians who are on the verge of losing 24 their access to healthcare because of the 25 reckless decisions made in Washington and this

1 General Assembly's failure to ensure that access
2 to care should never be a privilege for the few 3 but a promise to every single citizen in our 4 state; not our neighbor driving hours just to 5 get to work or see a doctor; not the working 6 families being priced out of their very own 7 neighborhoods by investors from Texas and 8 California and New York; and certainly -- and 9 certainly not the young people working towards 10 the American dream because this map doesn't 11 build that dream at all, it buries it. It
12 buries it. It keeps home ownership a privilege 13 for the few, another broken promise for the 14 many. Because those are the real life and 15 direct consequences of the map before you, a 16 rigged and gerrymandered map.

17           You brag about North Carolina winning,
18 but you're deciding who's allowed to win.
19 You're turning elections into coronations. With 20 this map, you've already declared victory,
21 victory for corruption, victory for Donald Trump 22 and for special interest, not your constituents.

23           But once again, with another rigged 24 map, this is a crushing defeat for 25 North Carolinians, our fellow Americans, and,

1 most importantly, self determination.

2 In this moment, in this moment with the 3 disastrous policies coming out of Washington, 4 when our nation cries out for examples of 5 integrity and courage, North Carolina could have 6 led. We could have chosen transparency, public 7 hearings across this great state, fair maps, 8 fair maps drawn in daylight. We could have 9 listened to millions whose voices now will be 10 erased.

11 Instead, you chose obedience, obedience 12 to the president who withheld flood relief; who 13 stalled funds for education and special needs 14 for our children; who turned his back on small 15 businesses, farmers and families still 16 rebuilding after Hurricane Helene and Tropical 17 Storm Chantal.

18 And now you reward that neglect with an 19 extra congressional seat for him, for just 20 another politician to join the ranks of 21 spineless politicians in Washington and congress
22 who have made daily life unbearable for American 23 small businesses, for family farms and too many 24 working families and students.

25 With that said, Madam President, I

1 would like to send forth an amendment.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Send forth your 3 amendment.

4 Which amendment, Senator Mohammed?

5 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President, it
6 would be S 249 ACH 21, Version 5.

7 PRESIDENT HUNT: The clerk will read.

8 THE CLERK: Senator Mohammed moves to 9 amend the bill.

10 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed is
11 recognized to explain the amendment.

12 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Thank you,
13 Madam President.

14 Colleagues, if you're rethinking what 15 it means to sit in your seat and you truly want 16 to be a champion of the people and live by the 17 principles and the values that you should and 18 truly represent the people that sent you to sit 19 in this seat -- and you have a real chance 20 before you right now -- you can vote on an 21 independent map that was drawn not by 22 politicians but a special master that truly 23 creates competitive races, creates balance and 24 represents our state fairly by creating, once 25 again, a 7/7 map for the state of

1 North Carolina. I ask for your support.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Is there discussion or 3 debate on Amendment Number 1?

4 Senator Hise, for what purpose do you
5 rise?

6 SENATOR HISE: To move that Amendment 1
7 do lie upon the table.

8 SENATOR DANIEL: Second.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise moves
10 that Amendment Number 1 do lay upon the table,
11 seconded by Senator Daniel.

12 This is a non-debatable motion. The 13 question before the body is the motion to lay
14 Amendment Number 1 to Senate Bill 249 on the 15 table. All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
16 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 17 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

18 26 having voted in the affirmative, 20
19 in the negative, Amendment Number 1 will lay
20 upon the table and we're back on the bill.

21 Senator Mohammed, for what purpose do
22 you rise?

23 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President, I
24 send forth a second amendment. This is S 249
25 AST 35, Version 3.

1 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator
2 Mohammed -- I'm sorry. The clerk will read.

3 THE CLERK: Senator Mohammed moves to
4 amend the bill.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed is
6 recognized to explain the amendment.

7 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Thank you,
8 Madam President.

9 With this amendment, maybe we can have 10 nonpartisan judges. Maybe judges that can 11 actually make genuine decisions --

12 SENATOR HISE: Point of order.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, state
14 your point of order.

15 SENATOR HISE: Madam Chairman, the 16 adjournment resolution that we passed I believe 17 was Senate Joint Resolution 772 which lays out 18 the matters which can be considered during this 19 session. It only includes matters related to 20 the maps or to redistricting, and this issue 21 would not be allowed, and I would ask therefore 22 that it be ruled out of order.

23 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President, if 24 I may speak to --

25 PRESIDENT HUNT: We're going to stand

1 at ease for one minute.

2 (At ease.)

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, please 4 approach the dais.

5 (At ease.)

6 PRESIDENT HUNT: I find the amendment
7 eligible.

8 Senator Hise, for what purpose do you
9 rise?

10 SENATOR HISE: Madam chairman, I rise
11 to appeal the decision of the chair.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Daniel, for
13 what purpose do you rise?

14 SENATOR DANIEL: Madam President, to 15 address the appeal.

16 My reading of the adjournment
17 resolution is that the items that are eligible 18 would not include this amendment, and therefore 19 I rule it out of order.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed, for
21 what purpose do you rise?

22 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President, if 23 you look at our amendment, the statute
24 is -- it's clearly relevant to what the rules
25 are. The statute literally that this amendment

1 applies to -- again, Senator Hise, if I may 2 explain what the amendment was going to do --

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed,
4 we're past that. So do you want to appeal the 5 rule -- the rules chair's decision?

6 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Yes,
7 Madam President, but I need to provide an 8 explanation so folks understand why I'm 9 saying -- this is about the three judge panels
10 that are appointed by the General Assembly only 11 who sit on the panels that directly impact
12 redistricting.

13 The statute is clearly outlined 14 1-261 -- 267.1, it's literally titled 15 Three-Judge Panel for Action Challenging Plans 16 Apportions or Redistricting State Legislative or 17 Congressional Districts. I don't know how much 18 more relevant it can be to what we're discussing 19 here today.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: So we will now have a 21 vote on the -- on Senator Mohammed's appeal of a 22 rules chair decision.

23 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
24 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 25 voting.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes.

3 SENATOR BERGER: Point of inquiry.

4 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Berger.

5 SENATOR BERGER: Is an aye vote to 6 sustain the rules chair's ruling, or is a no
7 vote to sustain the rules chair's ruling?

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: The question before 9 the Senate is a motion to sustain the ruling of 10 the rules chair. That's exactly -- so if you're 11 voting aye, you're voting to sustain the motion 12 of the rules chair, the ruling of the rules
13 chair, Senator Daniel.

14 So all in favor will vote aye, all 15 opposed will vote no. Five seconds will be 16 allowed for voting, and the clerk will record 17 the vote.

18 26 having voted in the affirmative, 20
19 in the negative, the ruling by the rules chair
20 stands. We're back on the vote -- on the bill.

21 Senator Mohammed, for what purpose do
22 you rise?

23 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President, I
24 send forth an amendment, S 249 AST 34, 25 Version 3.

1 PRESIDENT HUNT: The clerk will read.

2 THE CLERK: Senator Mohammed moves to
3 amend the bill.

4 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed is
5 recognized to explain the amendment.

6 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Thank you,
7 Madam President.

8 And for Senator Hise, this is 9 absolutely relevant to the bill. This is simply 10 about giving notice to the congressional voters
11 in these districts that their district 12 representation lines are about to change, or the 13 district numbers. I would think at bare minimum 14 this body would want to provide notice from the 15 state board of elections to people who are going 16 to be directly impacted by these new maps. I'd 17 appreciate your support.

18 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, for what
19 purpose do you rise?

20 SENATOR HISE: Move that Amendment 3 do
21 lie upon the table.

23 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise moves
24 that Amendment Number 3 do lay upon the table,
25 seconded by Senator Daniel. This is a

1 non-debatable motion.

2 The question before the body is the 3 motion to lay Amendment Number 3 to 4 Senate Bill 249 on the table.

5 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
6 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for
7 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

8 26 having voted in the affirmative, 20
9 in the negative, Amendment Number 3 will lay
10 upon the table and we are back on the bill.

11 Senator Blue, for what purpose do you
12 rise?

13 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Madam President.

14 Thank you, Senator Blue.

15 Madam President, I'd like to speak on 16 the bill.

17 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Mohammed, you
18 have the floor to speak on the bill.

19 SENATOR MOHAMMED: Thank you,
20 Madam President.

21 Well, here we are. We had an 22 opportunity to make some changes and provide 23 fair representation to the people of 24 North Carolina, and this body chose not to do 25 that.

1           So I want to make it clear, you can 2       gerrymander a map, but you cannot gerrymander
3       morality. You cannot draw crooked lines but 4       cannot -- but you cannot draw straight with a 5       crooked heart. You will ram through this 6       illegitimate map today and feel like you've won 7       with your vote today, but don't make that 8       mistake for righteousness. Because one day, 9       long after the votes are counted and the press
10      releases are written, we will all have to answer
11      for what we did with the power that the people 12      gave us. And when that day comes, when each of 13      us has to stand before our creator and explain 14      what did we do with that power, how will you 15      explain this? How will you explain that when 16      you had the chance to strengthen democracy, you 17      chose to weaken it, that when you could have 18      drawn fair lines, you drew walls, that when you 19      could have been a voice for the people, you 20      betrayed their trust.

21           Because leadership is not about 22      victory, it's about being a good steward. It's 23      about protecting what is sacred, the people's 24      trust, the people's voice, and the people's 25      faith in government.

1           And today you are breaking that trust.
2           You are betraying that voice. You can pass this 3           rigged map, but you cannot escape
4           accountability. You can ignore the cries of 5           your constituents, but you cannot escape your 6           conscience. And you can silence the people for 7           a time, for a time, but you cannot silence the 8           truth. The truth will find its way to the 9           ballot box, to our courthouses, to our 10          classrooms, to the pulpitis and to the streets 11          in North Carolina because the people of 12          North Carolina will not forget who stood up for 13          them today and who stood in their way.

14                 That's because people like me and many 15          of us still believe in this state. I still 16          believe that good people, even though sitting 17          here today, can choose a better path. I still 18          believe that in the face of impossible odds, 19          people who love this country like I do can 20          change it for the better. And I know this much, 21          that the truth will outlast your maps. The 22          truth always does.

23                 So to the people -- so to the people of 24          North Carolina and Americans across this 25          country, to the people that are in this gallery

1 today, to the people that are watching on your 2 television or listening in, to the people
3 shaking their heads and wondering does anybody
4 still fight for us, hear me now: Do not lose 5 heart. Do not lose faith. The power is still 6 yours even when the corrupt try to take it away.
7 They can gerrymander representation, but they 8 cannot gerrymander the truth. They can bend the 9 lines, but they cannot bend the will of you the 10 people.

11 Together -- together we will right this 12 wrong, and when we do, the people will say loud 13 and clearly not in our state, not in our name, 14 and together we will rise for the people, for 15 truth, and for the future we promised our 16 children. I urge you to vote against this map.

17 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Blue, for what
18 purpose do you rise?

19 SENATOR BLUE: To debate the bill.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
21 debate the bill.

22 SENATOR BLUE: Thank you very much,
23 Madam President.

24 I just want to make a couple of quick
25 observations. I'm not going to delay a long

1 time, but as I hear the debate and also as I
2 consider what we're doing, I'll share two quick 3 things with you.

4 Number one, I've been studying
5 redistricting since my first year in law school 6 half a century ago, and I've never seen -- and 7 studied it consistently, participated in it, in 8 the cases as well as drawing maps for that for 9 40 years, and I've never seen anything
10 like -- not necessarily like this particular 11 thing in our legislature today, but what's 12 happening around the country with redistricting.

13 I think all of us will admit that it's 14 something that has a deleterious effect on this 15 thing we call democracy. And I mention that 16 because next year we celebrate 250 years of the 17 idea that brought this country into existence.
18 250 years of honoring a constitution. 250 years 19 of being wedded to concepts of fairness and 20 trying to live out what the Declaration of 21 Independence but more importantly the 22 United States Constitution laid forth in a way 23 that no nation had ever laid it forth before.

24 Now, in the 1990s, I took a strange
25 position. I embraced the concept of states'

1 rights. Emerging from the civil rights era, it 2 was strange for a black person to take that 3 position because states' rights was the motto
4 that was used in so much of the negative stuff
5 in the '40s, '50s, and '60s, but I embraced that 6 along with legislators from across the 7 United States, Democrat and Republican, because 8 we saw an infringement coming from Washington on 9 what states could do and what they should do.

10 And as a result of us embracing that, 11 we changed the laws of this country in the 12 supreme court and in the congress so that they 13 stopped overreaching, stopped -- that is, the 14 national government -- stop trying to preempt
15 what states could do. We changed the taxes so 16 that states could collect their fair share of 17 what was beginning to be a great source of 18 revenue as people were beginning to do digital 19 trade.

20 So we made a difference. So that 21 experience made me even more convinced that this 22 rare little thing as a last amendment in the 23 Bill of Rights, the Tenth Amendment to the 24 United States Constitution which was enacted as 25 a condition to have this government created in

1 the 1780s.

2 Now, fast forward a little bit, and I
3 had the privilege of representing all 99
4 legislative bodies in the United States as well
5 as those from the territories around this world 6 as we visited countries, democracies, some not 7 democracies, trying to point out what the value
8 of the Tenth Amendment is and why America is so 9 different than other democracies.

10 You know, we met with people in Italy.
11 They wanted to know how we could have the 12 independence that we have, the Tenth Amendment 13 because we're not just an offshoot of the 14 federal government. We don't do what congress
15 tells us to do in 90 percent of the cases
16 because the Tenth Amendment reserves the right 17 to do things regarding those to the states.

18 And so it's in that context that I
19 think we ought to look at what we're doing now.
20 Because after traveling well over 30 countries, 21 talking about the rarity and the magic of this 22 thing called states' rights, giving states the 23 ability to tell the national government to go
24 pound sand in so many instances, I then look up 25 and see exactly what we're doing here, and I'm

1 just trying to figure out why.

2 Because if we look at our -- at our 3 journey through the last 250 years, so many of 4 the major battles have been fought in state 5 legislatures, like the outcome or not, but what 6 we have here and the reason that we are debating 7 this bill is because now we're basically giving 8 all of our power not just -- not just to the 9 national congress, they have basically decided 10 that they aren't going to exercise their power.
11 It's all about checks and balances and us
12 thinking about what best benefits the people 13 that we represent as a state. How do we 14 determine that what we're doing here today
15 benefits North Carolinians?

16 What surprises me is that so many 17 really want to take on what all the consequences 18 are for what these characters are doing in 19 Washington, whether we really want to take full 20 credit, as apparently some people in here do, of 21 the big whatever kind of bill it is that's going 22 to take insurance coverage away from over a 23 million North Carolinians, a bill that is going 24 to help drive up the cost of things to 25 North Carolinians.

1           Why do you want to accept full credit
2     for that which is going to be in full bloom next 3     election? Right now you can stand on the 4     sideline and say we didn't do it, those guys in 5     Washington did it. Tell me why you want to take 6     ownership of what everybody sees coming down the 7     road, when people understand why their grocery 8     prices are going up, why all of these other 9     things -- why their hospitals, many of them are 10    going to be closing, why they're going to be 11    losing medical assistance.

12           Heretofore, you could argue that was 13    those people who just didn't have foresight to 14    know what's going to happen. All we got to do 15    is watch the markets, watch what's happening 16    with the economy.

17           And as we spring the celebration in 18    July at the 250th anniversary and you look at 19    your constituents, they're going to give you 20    some of the credit for what they're experiencing 21    rather than just blaming the folk in Washington.
22    And that's why I'm so confused as to why you 23    would embrace this for an additional 24    congressperson that's probably going to be all 25    set.

1           You know, I look at the districts and 2           the makeup of the districts. A 55 percent, 3           56 percent district in a tough election and one 4           that is a change election is not safe whether 5           it's a 50 percent, 55 percent district in 6           North Carolina for the legislature or whether 7           it's a 55 percent for the congressperson that 8           you are trying to create through this.

9           So maybe I'm just stupid or ignorant or 10          something like that, but I'm just trying to 11          figure out why you're doing this in light of the 12          kind of analysis that we have the power to do 13          under the Tenth Amendment.

14          We don't bow to kings or wannabe kings.
15          We don't bow to presidents or wannabe presidents 16          just because they say do something. And I'm not 17          saying that's what happened. I just read the 18          press, but if that's the case, we still owe our 19          citizens a duty to weigh what this benefits
20          them.

21          And that's the beauty of the ten 22          amendments that gave us this country, and I want 23          you to think about it in that broader context.
24          All of these other issues that are raised,
25          nothing you can do about it because the courts

1 have totally moved away from precedent and 2 everything else. If they really were 3 originalists, they would understand the 4 environment in which these amendments were 5 passed, they would understand the reason these 6 amendments were passed because they were trying 7 to get as far away from King George III as they 8 possibly could.

9 They wanted states and localities to 10 have the independent ability to make these 11 decisions. That's why I like celebrating the 12 Tenth Amendment, that's why I believe in states' 13 rights, and that's why I traveled around the 14 world convincing other democracies how we were 15 different. We don't have to rely on the federal 16 government to tell us all of the revenue we get.
17 We're not just their substations.

18 And if you look at it closely and put 19 it in context, that is what the real debate is, 20 whether we believe in the Tenth Amendment. As 21 citizens and representatives in this legislative 22 body, do we believe that we owe an obligation 23 and a duty to our people to be independent of 24 the federal government when we need to be in 25 their behalf. Thank you.

1 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Bradley, for
2 what purpose do you rise?

3 SENATOR BRADLEY: To speak to the bill.

4 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
5 speak to the bill.

6 SENATOR BRADLEY: Today we're faced
7 with a decision, and that decision is not which 8 party we're going to side with. It's whether or 9 not we're going to side with democracy. We can 10 either stand up for the people of North Carolina 11 and their right to have representation that 12 actually represents them or we can strip them of 13 that representation to cater to the whims of one 14 man.

15 Now, that decision should be an obvious
16 one, but the fact that we're here today with a 17 rigged map proves otherwise.

18 In a true democracy, good ideas should 19 be able to stand on their own. And if someone's 20 ideas are supposedly so great, so wonderful and 21 so popular, there shouldn't be any need to 22 cheat, nor steal in order for that person and 23 those ideas to come out on top. Confident 24 leaders who are truly working to address the 25 needs of their communities would not be scared

1 to lose in a fair competition.

2 And above all of that, attempting to 3 pass this rigged map is profoundly un-American.
4 This isn't about Republican versus Democrat.
5 This is about whether we still respect the 6 principles that our nation was built upon:
7 Democracy, representation, justice, the power of 8 the people, We the People.

9 I for one love this country. I love
10 this state, and that is exactly why I will be 11 voting against this rigged map. I strongly urge 12 you to do the same. Thank you.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Murdock, for
14 what purpose do you rise?

15 SENATOR MURDOCK: To speak on the bill.

16 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
17 speak on the bill.

18 SENATOR MURDOCK: One of the perpetual
19 black eyes of North Carolina is our history of 20 racial gerrymandering and targeting black voters
21 with surgical precision. Our state constitution
22 unfortunately still references a literacy test 23 to vote.

24 We are here today because voter 25 suppression is not as flagrant as it was in the

1 times of Jim Crow, as it was when my ancestors
2 and many of you fought. The firehoses and 3 attack dogs have been replaced with complex and 4 oppressive laws making it harder to vote and 5 harder for those votes to count even after they 6 are cast. We now have to fight for those votes 7 to count.

8 Election conspiracists and those 9 supporting Donald Trump want a world where I 10 don't belong. They push outrage culture to 11 justify legal barriers to voting and actively 12 eliminate access to economic opportunities to 13 black and brown people. They are fighting to 14 erase the stories of my ancestors, your 15 ancestors and the blood they spilled from our 16 freedom, from our classroom to legislative 17 bodies.

18 We are the defenders of our democracy
19 each and everyday. We will see the dreams and 20 aspirations of the civil rights movement 21 through. We will deliver a country better than 22 the one we inherited because our ancestors all 23 sacrificed. We have made a covenant with God to 24 serve and be just and kind.

25 Civil rights is more than a series of 1 laws. It's a quality of life we deliver as 2 leaders, neighbors and people of god.

3 The federal Voting Rights Act is barely 4 hanging on by a thread. Gone are the days where 5 our state cared about having representatives
6 that look like them. That makes our democracy 7 better.

8 My aunts and uncles who marched
9 alongside the A&T Four and led the 1960
10 Greensboro sit-ins are still marching to this 11 day for our voting rights. It has been over 12 60 years, and they are tired. I want to give 13 them the ability to rest, to bask in knowing 14 votes will count of their children and their 15 grandchildren. They have passed the torch on to 16 all of us.

17 For the past three years, I have 18 traveled to Selma, Montgomery to honor the life 19 and legacy of those freedom fighters that almost 20 died on Bloody Sunday in 1965 for voting rights.
21 We march arm in arm as we walk across the 22 Edmund Pettus Bridge. John Lewis and others 23 never would have imagined that we would still be 24 fighting for the right for black votes to 25 actually count.

1 John Lewis once said the vote is 2 precious. It is the most powerful non-violent 3 tool we have in a democratic society, and we 4 must use it. Shame on us.

5 Congresswoman Eva Clayton was the first 6 black woman elected to congress here in 7 North Carolina. I can only begin to imagine the 8 joy and pride she felt that the South, the home 9 place of Jim Crow, was getting it right, finally 10 getting it right when we made history by 11 electing her in 1992.

12 And now in 2025, we are on the verge of 13 subjecting the people of the first congressional 14 district to having worse representation than 15 they did in 1992. I am really sad that in her 16 91 years she will see us roll backwards, going, 17 yet again, in the wrong direction.

18 The truth is our democracy is fragile.
19 It is founded and reestablished daily. We have 20 to fight for it, and we will on today. That is 21 why we are speaking out and will continue to do 22 so. We know we won't win today's battle, but 23 we're not going down without a fight. History 24 will be kind to us, showing that the hundreds of 25 people comments mattered, the hundreds of people

1 that showed up this morning, that dropped their 2 lives to drive to Raleigh at the ninth hour.

3 They fought for democracy today, and it matters.

4 We must speak out today. The people of 5 North Carolina's first district deserve that.

6 Just as those who marched in Selma dreamed of a 7 better democracy as they were bleeding and 8 running for their lives, being chased by dogs.

9 We will continue to dream for a better tomorrow.

10 People often forget Selma did not send 11 with that Bloody Sunday when John Lewis almost 12 died and went unconscious. On March 25, 1965, 13 they were joined with 25,000 people and then 14 marched all of them to Montgomery, to the 15 capital, to continue to fight for voting rights.

16 So today is not the end, it is just the 17 beginning. And we don't just have 25,000 18 people, we have millions of voters that will 19 keep fighting, keep pushing. Some of them are 20 joining us here today.

21 So again, this is just the beginning.
22 We will continue to stand up and fight because, 23 as John Lewis said, the most valuable tool of 24 our democracy is voting, and we will continue to 25 fight, even putting our bodies on the line to

1 protect that sacred right. I urge you to vote
2 against this bill.

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Chitlik, for
4 what purpose do you rise?

5 SENATOR CHITLIK: To speak to the bill.

6 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
7 speak to the bill.

8 SENATOR CHITLIK: Thank you.

9 Today when I was coming to work, I was 10 saying goodbye to my son, who asked, why are you 11 so fancy? I said, you know, I'm going to work.
12 And he said why? You know, like just stay home
13 with me. And I said, I'm sorry, I can't do
14 that, but you know when we play Candy Land -- 15 he's four so he's like super excited to know how 16 to play this game now -- you know there's a set 17 of rules that we actually don't get to change.
18 Yes, he said. And I'm going to work to remind 19 some people about that because I'm afraid that 20 they've forgotten.

21 Look, we're not playing Candy Land
22 here. We're not even playing government. I
23 don't really know what game we're playing, but I
24 know our country has rules. It has rules
25 because our founders suffered under a vicious

1 monarchy where one person and one person alone
2 imposed his decisions on the masses.

3 Almost 250 years ago, we decided that 4 that was not a good way to run a vibrant nation, 5 that democracy was the way to have the most 6 powerful and vibrant nation in the entire world.
7 An elected despotism was not the government we 8 fought for but one which should not only be 9 founded on free principles but in which the 10 powers of government should be so divided and 11 balanced among several bodies.

12 That's not just my advice, it's Thomas
13 Jefferson's. The president is asking state
14 legislators to give him more seats in congress 15 because he is scared that voters won't vote for 16 his wildly unpopular agenda of low taxes for the 17 rich and high prices and true sacrifice for 18 literally everyone else, an agenda that 19 disproportionately harms black people whose 20 power that this map takes away.

21 By saying, okay, great, sure, actually,
22 yes, volunteer us, please to that request, this 23 body would be directly challenging the sacred 24 American Creeds of separation of powers, of 25 states' rights just like Senator Blue

1 brilliantly talked about, and of representative 2 democracy.

3 So I'm genuinely asking today, does 4 creating our fifth congressional map in six
5 years at the request of a sitting president 6 strengthen the principles that we were founded 7 on or does it degrade them, does it degrade this 8 very body? Is this aligned with our 9 constitution and with our founding spirit or is 10 it an affront to those things?

11 I wasn't in committee today, but I 12 really wanted to ask what other parts of the 13 North Carolina law and our American constitution
14 are you willing to throw out when Donald Trump 15 asks you to?

16 If he doesn't like the 2026 election
17 results and he calls you to ask you to overturn 18 them, just like he did in 2020 in Georgia -- so 19 it's not that far-fetched, okay -- will you help 20 him? If President Trump wants to change the 21 constitution that we all have on our desk that's 22 really sacred to us, that's gotten us here for 23 250 years so that he can get a third term or a 24 fourth term, are you going to ratify that? Is 25 that okay, too? Is that on the table? What if

1 he agrees to, I don't know, endorse you in 2 exchange for your help, or is this just the 3 normal democratic process now?

4 Look, the GOP might be governed like a
5 monarchy, but North Carolina is still a
6 democracy, at least for now. Our founders
7 believed in separation of powers. They believed 8 in divided government. They believed in 9 constitutional democracy, and they also believed 10 in deliberation. That process got us 11 here -- the process that got us here isn't just 12 bad by 2025 standards, it's bad by 1775
13 standards. That's really embarrassing. A bad 14 process will get you a bad product every time.

15 Look, you and I both know that 16 I -- that we as Democrats don't have a lot of 17 power to stop these maps. That's actually why 18 you put them in front of us, but what we do have 19 and what I have is a deep and fundamental belief 20 in our constitution and in the people of this 21 state. I also believe in the rules. I don't 22 let my four-year-old cheat at Candy Land, and I
23 wish with all of my power that I could stop you 24 from cheating by changing these maps in the 25 middle of the game.

1 History will not judge favorably those 2 who defy our founding principles by voting for 3 these maps. You are bringing great shame to our 4 republic and, frankly, to your children and 5 grandchildren to whom you owe a more noble 6 legacy than the desecration of our democracy and 7 the idea that cheating is just fine.

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Everitt, for
9 what purpose do you rise?

10 SENATOR EVERITT: To speak on the bill.

11 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to 12 speak on the bill.

13 SENATOR EVERITT: Thank you.

14 It is surreal to me that we are here 15 having this debate about whether we want the 16 republic to continue. And if you don't think 17 that that is what this is about, you don't fully 18 understand what you're about to vote on.

19 This map isn't about representation, it 20 is about predetermination, drawing districts to 21 guarantee outcomes and insulate those in power
22 from accountability. We have redistricted
23 before, but today we're told we must redistrict
24 North Carolina to help Republicans secure
25 congress and move President Trump's agenda

1 forward.

2 We are using state power to fix the 3 result to protect the president. I still can't 4 get my head around that. We do not for work
5 Donald Trump. This is not his field office.
6 This is the North Carolina Senate. We work for 7 the people of North Carolina. Was that not 8 clear in the job description?

9 When a party uses state power to 10 predetermine elections in an effort to make 11 opposition meaningless, that's no longer
12 self-governance. Checks and balances only 13 function if each branch insists on doing its 14 job. When a legislature engineers a 15 congressional delegation to protect the 16 ambitions of one man, it is not governing any 17 more. It is surrendering the people's voice for 18 its own self-interest.

19 This is a betrayal of our office. It 20 is a betrayal of our country.

21 That being said, I expect every member
22 of the majority in the Senate and in the House
23 to vote for this bill anyway, but I know what 24 history does with moments like this, it will ask 25 one simple question: When it was your turn, did

1 you defend the republic?

2 History will remember the day fascism
3 came to North Carolina, and y'all couldn't wait 4 to get on your knees.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Applewhite,
6 for what purpose do you rise?

7 SENATOR APPLEWHITE: To speak to the
8 bill.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
10 speak to the bill.

11 SENATOR APPLEWHITE: Thank you,
12 Madam President. And thank you to my colleagues 13 for your words, and a special thanks to everyone 14 that came out to the committee this morning and 15 spoke.

16 And I was struck by one of the speakers 17 who told a story of her son that served in the 18 Air Force and he got out of the Air Force and he 19 was going to run for public office, but he 20 passed away, and she was there speaking about 21 democracy in his honor and on his behalf.

22 That resonated with me because many of 23 you know that I have also served in the 24 Air Force. I represent a district, Fort Bragg, 25 that serves many active duty members, and we've

1 all, many times, raised our right hand and swore 2 to protect and defend the constitution of the 3 United States against all enemies, foreign and 4 domestic.

5 And by the way, many of the active duty 6 members who are defending democracy because of 7 President Trump and what's happening in 8 Washington may not get a paycheck the first of 9 November, so process that.

10 So I thought I would talk to you about 11 democracy. Not only have I served, but my 12 graduate work is in political science, and I'm 13 kind of poli-sci wonk. Before there was the 14 United States Constitution, before there was 15 even a United States as we know it, there was an 16 idea, an idea that ordinary people could govern 17 themselves, but that was a fragile idea.

18 In 1787, as the newly- formed states
19 debated whether to ratify the constitution,
20 three men -- and I know you all seen Hamilton -- 21 Alexander Hamilton, John Jay, and James Madison
22 wrote a series of essays called The Federalist
23 Papers. These papers were written to persuade a 24 skeptical public that this new form of 25 government, a representative democracy, could

1 actually work. They explored every danger that 2 could threaten it and every safeguard needed to 3 preserve it.

4 Of those essays, Federalist Paper
5 Number 10, written by James Madison, stands as 6 one of the most prophetic. Madison warned that 7 the greatest threat to this bold experiment in 8 democracy would not come from foreign countries
9 but from factions, groups of citizens bound
10 together by a common interest who would pursue 11 power at the expense of justice, fairness, and 12 the rights of others. He cautioned that these 13 factions, what we now call political parties, 14 could one day grow so powerful and so
15 self-interested that they would put their own 16 survival above the survival of democracy itself.

17 280 -- 238 years later, Madison's
18 warning echos through this chamber. What he 19 feared has come to pass. The two-party system, 20 once meant to balance ideas, has hardened into a 21 battlefield where victory itself has become more 22 important than virtue. And today as we prepare 23 to vote on these new congressional lines for 24 political advantage, not for fairness, not for 25 representation but for partisan power, we stand

1 as living proof that Madison's fears were 2 justified.

3 Let us not pretend this is new.
4 North Carolina has been ground zero for voter
5 suppression for over a decade. We've watched
6 this state become a testing ground, a testing 7 lab for every modern tactic designed to make 8 voting harder: Strict voter ID laws, signature 9 verification, hurdles, purging voter roles, and 10 racially gerrymandered maps that courts have 11 repeatedly struck down as unconstitutional.

12 Yet here we are again using the same 13 playbook, the same cynical manipulation of 14 democracy, different decades but same 15 disrespect. And this morning, during the 16 elections committee, we saw the playbook on full 17 display when Senator Hise was asked who drew the 18 maps, he proudly said I did it. When asked if 19 other members of the caucus were, you know,
20 involved in drawing the maps, he said no, a 21 couple staff members and, you know, him and the 22 caucus legal team. He even claimed that, quote, 23 that at no point ever did anyone look at race.
24 He said it with a straight face. I looked 25 around the room and not one person believed him,

1 but that didn't stop him. He just kept saying 2 it like as if he said it enough times it would 3 somehow become true.

4 Well, Senator, if you didn't look at 5 race, you sure did manage to find every black 6 community between here and the coast when it 7 came to slice up the map.

8 It's hard to be a black voter in 9 North Carolina. Republicans can't find black 10 communities for broadband access, for economic 11 investment, or for healthcare, but when it comes 12 to redistricting, suddenly they've got the best 13 GPS in the country and, boy, they are good at 14 finding us.

15 Let's not kid ourselves, the so-called 16 Black Belt of North Carolina has long been a 17 cornerstone of black political power and rural 18 representation. By dismantling this district, 19 Republicans aren't just redrawing lines, they 20 are erasing history, silencing voices, and 21 turning their backs on decades of progress.

22 But we've seen these fights before, but 23 back then we could rely on the courts to 24 deliberate freely and deliver justice. We 25 believed that when politicians went too far,

1     there were guardrails, a judiciary that would 2     protect the people when politicians would not.

3             Those times are gone. Our 4     North Carolina courts have been compromised.
5     The highest court in our state, once a shield 6     for fairness and justice, has been overtaken by 7     partisanship. Even the United States Supreme 8     Court, once revered as the final defender of 9     constitutional rights, has become entangled in 10    ideology and influence and politics.

11            So what do we do now? What do we do as 12    a state, as a nation when every institution 13    designed to protect democracy begins to crumble 14    under political pressure?

15            I'll tell you what we'll do. We will 16    turn to the only authority left: The people.
17    The people of North Carolina must now become the 18    last line of defense because clearly this 19    legislature will not defend democracy. Clearly, 20    too many in congress are standing by watching 21    what has taken 250 years to build begin to 22    crumble before our very eyes.

23            We are just one year away from this 24    nation's 250th birthday, a milestone that should 25    be a celebration of freedom, progress, and

1 justice, but instead we will find ourselves
2 asking what exactly will we be celebrating? Are 3 we celebrating democracy or its dismantling?
4 Are we celebrating liberty or loyalty to one
5 man?

6 Because let's be clear, this latest
7 push to redraw congressional maps is not about 8 North Carolina, it is about Donald Trump. It's 9 being done at his direction just as we saw in 10 Texas and Florida and other Republican-11 controlled states. It is part of a coordinated 12 national effort to reshape this country's 13 political map in his image to guarantee one 14 thing, that Donald Trump and only Donald Trump 15 remains in power.

16 Once again, our statements from many of 17 you point fingers at Democrats as though we are 18 the problem, but let's tell the truth, the real 19 danger sits in the White House. This is the man 20 who refused to accept the results of a free and 21 fair election, who pressured state officials to 22 find votes that didn't exist, the same man who 23 sends federal troops into American cities to 24 silence protestors, who threaten governors who 25 refuse to use the national guard against their

1 own citizens. The same man who encouraged armed 2 extremists to stand back and standby. The same 3 man who inspired an insurrection against the 4 very government he swore to protect.

5 And now North Carolina's Republican 6 majority has decided to follow his lead, to take 7 direction not from the constitution, not from 8 the people of the state but from Donald Trump.

9 You can change the lines all you want,
10 but you cannot change the truth. This 11 legislature is now carrying out the political 12 will of a man who has made himself the 13 single -- single greatest threat to American 14 democracy in modern history. And when the 15 history of this moment is written, it will show
16 that Donald Trump didn't need to destroy
17 democracy alone. He had willing partners right
18 here in the North Carolina General Assembly, 19 partners who followed his orders, who traded the 20 people's trust for political favor, who forgot 21 that their loyalty should be their constituents, 22 not a man. We are witnessing a hostile takeover 23 of our democracy led not by foreign powers but 24 by those entrusted to keep it and to protect it.

25 And I say this directly to the people

1 of North Carolina: It is up to you now. The 2 courts will not save us. The congress will not 3 save us. Only you, the voters, the citizens, 4 the communities who still believe in justice,
5 fairness, and truth can save this democracy.
6 Your vote, your voice, your vigilance, that is 7 the last barrier standing between freedom and 8 the fall of this republic.

9 Almost done. Nothing I say here today
10 will change the outcome of this vote. I am
11 under no illusion. The majority will move
12 forward with this plan not because it is right 13 but because they can, but history will remember 14 this moment. It will remember who stood up, who 15 stayed silent. It will remember who protected 16 democracy and who traded it away for power.

17 And to my Republican colleagues, I need
18 to ask -- I mean, he's a nice guy, but do you 19 trust Senator Hise that much? He told you he 20 drew the maps. He told you that -- he said you 21 had no input, no role, no knowledge, and yet you 22 will still vote for them on something this 23 critical not just for the future of our state 24 but for the very survival of our democracy. Are 25 you willing to risk it all on a map that he

1 wrote behind closed doors and you didn't even 2 see it, a map drawn at the direction of a man in 3 the White House traded for political favor. Are 4 you really going to do that? Your names will go 5 down in history with this one, not as -- not as 6 bystanders but as participants, and I can 7 promise you this history is not going to be 8 kind.

9 I ask you, is there any line you won't
10 cross for power? Is there any point where you 11 stop and say this is too much? I cannot believe 12 every single one of you sitting here believes 13 today that this is the right thing to do. Will 14 there ever come a moment, even once, when your 15 conscience outweighs your caucus, when your core 16 values, your sense of morality, your belief in 17 true democracy outweighs party loyalty? Because 18 make no mistake, history will remember not just 19 what you did but why you did it.

20 And there was a time when I envied the 21 Republican colleagues. I envy how you all stood 22 together, 30/20, 30/20. You guys would stick 23 together like glue. No matter how harmful the 24 policy, you never broke ranks. But I don't 25 admire that any more, I don't. Because what I

1 once saw as unity, I now see as silence, silence
2 borne of fear and ambition.

3 At the end of the day when the cameras
4 are gone and the headlines fade, you live with 5 yourself. You will live with the choices you 6 made and the integrity you surrendered. I would 7 walk away from this seat tomorrow before I would 8 ever compromise who I am and who I believe in.
9 The English historian Lord Acton once said power 10 tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts 11 absolutely.

12 Thank you.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Let me remind the 14 Senate of Rule 17B, no derogatory remarks 15 reflecting personally upon any senator shall be 16 allowed on the floor.

17 Senator Robinson, for what purpose do
18 you rise?

19 SENATOR ROBINSON: To comment on the
20 bill.

21 PRESIDENT HUNT: You may speak on the
22 bill.

23 SENATOR ROBINSON: Thank you. I know
24 you all are tired of the comments. I hear ya, 25 but we're tired of the foolishness.

1           Senator Hise reminded us several times
2 this morning that this map was strictly about 3 partisan politics, strictly about partisan
4 politics, but we know that the map is about 5 race. The map is about race.

6           Never has a president of the 7 United States of America requested that a
8 legislature do such. Barack Obama didn't do
9 that. What he did not say, though, is that this 10 map would disenfranchise black Americans.

11           This state is 50/50, just about 50/50, 12 plus or minus a few, but it does not only take 13 the rights, Senator Hise, from Democrats, it 14 takes the rights from black voters.

15           You know, I was a part of the 16 1965 -- well, no, I'm not 65, but I was there in 17 '67 electing people to vote. I helped elect
18 Henry Frye, the first African American to this 19 General Assembly.

20           I never thought that we would get to a 21 day that you would try to take back the rights
22 of black people. I'm disappointed. I don't 23 think all of you are hateful, but out of three 24 black representatives, you want to pull one away
25 which takes away the opportunity for black

1 people to elect somebody that represents them, 2 that understands their needs in congress.

3 We thought that Jim Crow went out with 4 the Voting Rights Act, but you assured us that 5 Jim Crow -- the new Jim Crow is back.

6 I also thought that we had made some 7 progress in North Carolina. You fooled me, but 8 I can be easily fooled because this map
9 represents a taking back not only of the rights 10 but the trust, the trust that we had built in 11 this General Assembly or in North Carolina, and 12 the people will not have such a trust.

13 Republicans are rigging elections for a 14 power grab, and we know that's your angle. You 15 do that all the time. But instead of that, you 16 have allowed a convicted felon in the 17 White House to convince you to make 18 North Carolina a part of his assault not for 19 votes but out of an act of allegiance.

20 I'm disappointed. I'm disappointed
21 where this General Assembly has gone. You don't 22 represent even your constituents because people
23 this morning said they've talked to Republicans
24 as well as Democrats, and the majority of them
25 don't want this. So who do you represent? I

1 don't know. I ask you to vote no on this map.

2 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Lowe, for what
3 purpose do you rise?

4 SENATOR LOWE: To speak on the --

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: You have the floor to
6 speak on the bill.

7 SENATOR LOWE: -- speak on the bill.

8 Thank you. I'm not going to speak very long. I 9 had dental surgery this morning, and the 10 Novocain is wearing off so I'm capable of saying 11 a whole lot of things that you wouldn't want to 12 hear me say.

13 I rise today as -- not just as a 14 legislator but as someone that has spent their 15 whole life fighting injustice. I'm a child of 16 the civil rights movement. My parents fought in 17 the civil rights movement. My grandparents
18 fought in the civil rights movement. And so 19 many things that we thought we had moved past we 20 are now seeing all over again. I didn't think I 21 would see what I'm seeing now and what we're 22 experiencing now, and I think it's wrong.

23 This is a choice that was calculated to 24 weaken the African American vote, rural voters, 25 everyday working families across eastern

1 North Carolina. When you slice through
2 Greenville, when you unravel Kinston, when you
3 split Wilson, when you carve up Greene county, 4 Bertie, and Washington, you are not just 5 redrawing lines on a map. You are redrawing the 6 story of our people. You are breaking apart 7 communities bound by faith, by history, and by 8 shared struggle. And I tell you it is wrong.
9 Because I'm a black Baptist preacher, I got to 10 put scripture somewhere.

11           Isaiah said, woe unto them that decree
12 unrighteousness and unrighteous decrees.

13           Well, this is unrighteous policy. This 14 is punishment. This punishes communities who 15 dare to vote their conscious. It punishes the 16 citizens who still believes that democracy means 17 one person, one vote, not one party all the 18 power.

19           Many of you, I have spent time with and 20 I would consider friends and would invite you to 21 my home, and I've been to some of your homes, 22 but this is wrong, and that's all I can really 23 say. These maps silence black voices in places 24 where the church still stands tall and where 25 families still gather on porches and where folks

1 still believe that their vote ought to count
2 just as much as anyone else's.

3 So I stand here today to say not this 4 time, not again. North Carolina, we can do
5 better. We are called to serve the people, all 6 the people, not to manipulate them for temporary 7 gain. And history will remember whether we 8 stood for what was right or stood by while 9 others erase the progress that we have made.

10 So for this reason I cannot support 11 this bill, but I would like to offer an 12 amendment -- two amendments at this time.

13 PRESIDENT HUNT: Which amendment is 14 first?

15 SENATOR LOWE: S 249. Do you
16 have -- do I need to read the rest of these 17 numbers that you got?

18 PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes, please.

19 SENATOR LOWE: S 249-ACHE-119.

20 PRESIDENT HUNT: Thank you. The clerk
21 will read.

22 THE CLERK: Senator Lowe moves to amend
23 the bill.

24 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Lowe is
25 recognized to explain the amendment.

1           SENATOR LOWE: Okay. This amendment
2 makes a slight change here. It moves to amend
3 the bill on page 1, line 2 by deleting districts
4 and submitting districts and to require four 5 hours of early voting on at least one Sunday 6 during the early voting period.

7           This has been a -- I can't say a 8 long-standing tradition, but it certainly has 9 been a tradition in the African American 10 community and has been a tradition that African 11 American churches have carried out to many 12 people vote at different times and for some 13 Sunday is the only time they have to go to the 14 polls. So it is my hope that you will consider 15 this amendment that I submit to you.

16          PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise, for what
17 purpose do you rise?

18          SENATOR HISE: To move that Amendment 4
19 do lie upon the table.

20          SENATOR DANIEL: Second.

21          PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise moves
22 that Amendment Number 4 do lay upon the table,
23 seconded by Senator Daniel.

24          This is a non-debatable motion. The 25 question before the body is the motion to lay

1 Amendment Number 4 to Senate Bill 249 on the
2 table.

3 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
4 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for
5 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

6 Senator Blue, no.

7 Senator Lowe.

8 SENATOR LOWE: No.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Lee. Senator
10 Lee. Senator Lee.

11 Senator Lazzara. Senator Lazzara.
12 Senator Lazzara.

13 24 having voted in the affirmative, 20
14 in the negative, Amendment Number 4 will lay
15 upon the table.

16 Senator Lowe, for what purpose do you
17 rise?

18 SENATOR LOWE: To submit an amendment.

19 PRESIDENT HUNT: The clerk will read.

20 THE CLERK: Senator Lowe moves to amend
21 the bill.

22 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Lowe is
23 recognized to explain the amendment.

24 SENATOR LOWE: This amendment moves to 25 amend the bill on page 1, line 2 by deleting

1 districts and -- substituting districts and to 2 allow for a ten-day grace period for the return
3 of absentee ballots if postmarked on election
4 day. I submit to you.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: A leave of absence is 6 requested and without objection is granted for 7 Senator Lee.

8 Senator Hise, for purpose do you rise?

9 SENATOR HISE: Move that Amendment 5 do
10 lie upon the table.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Hise moves
13 that Amendment Number 5 do lay upon the table,
14 seconded by Senator Daniel.

15 This is a non-debatable motion. The
16 question before the body is the motion to lay
17 Amendment Number 5 to Senate Bill 249 on the 18 table.

19 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
20 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 21 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

22 Senator Sawrey, aye.

23 Senator Chaudhuri, no.

24 25 having voted in the affirmative, 20
25 in the negative, Amendment Number 4 -- Number 5

1 will lay upon the table. We're back on the
2 bill.

3 Senator Lazzara, for what purpose do
4 you rise?

5 SENATOR LAZZARA: Thank you,
6 Madam President. Can I be an aye on 7 Amendment 4, please.

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: So the final count on 9 Amendment 4 was 25 aye, 20 no.

10 Senator Garrett, for what purpose do
11 you rise?

12 SENATOR GARRETT: Thank you,
13 Madam President. I move that Senate Bill 249 do
14 lie upon the table.

15 SENATOR BATCH: Second.

16 PRESIDENT HUNT: All right. Senator
17 Garrett moves that Senate Bill 249 do lay upon 18 the table, seconded by Senator Batch.

19 This is a non-debatable motion. The
20 question before the body is the motion to lay
21 Senate Bill 249 on the table.

22 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
23 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 24 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

25 19 having voted in the affirmative, 26

1 in the negative, Senate Bill 249 will not lay
2 upon the table. We're back on the bill.

3 Senator Garrett, for what purpose do
4 you rise?

5 SENATOR GARRETT: I move that the 6 Senate do now adjourn.

7 SENATOR BATCH: Second.

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Berger, for
9 what purpose do you rise?

10 SENATOR BERGER: Call for the ayes and 11 nos.

12 PRESIDENT HUNT: All right. Let's call 13 for the ayes and nos on this. All in favor will 14 vote aye, all opposed will vote no to adjourn.

15 All right. This is how we're going to 16 do this. The question before the body is yes or 17 no on the motion to adjourn.

18 All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
19 will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 20 voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

21 20 having voted in the affirmative, 25
22 in the negative, the motion to adjourn does not 23 pass. We are back on the bill.

24 Senator Garrett, for what purpose do
25 you rise?

1           SENATOR GARRETT: I would like to move
2           that the Senate do now adjourn until March 4th.

3           SENATOR BATCH: Second.

4           PRESIDENT HUNT: Once again, we're 5           going to take a vote on this. All in favor of 6           adjourning until March 4th will vote aye, all 7           against adjourning until March 4th will vote no.
8           Five seconds will be allowed for voting, and the 9           clerk will record the vote.

10          Hold on. The question before the body
11          is the motion to adjourn until March 4th.

12          All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
13          will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 14          voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

15          18 in the positive -- I'm sorry.

16          SENATOR JACKSON: Madam President.

17          PRESIDENT HUNT: I'm sorry. Yes.
18          Senator Jackson, you're a no. All right.

19          18 having voted in the affirmative, 27
20          in the negative, the motion to adjourn to 21          March 4th does not pass.

22          SENATOR BERGER: Madam President.

23          PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes, Senator Berger,
24          for what purpose do you rise?

25          SENATOR BERGER: Under Rule 19, I move

1 that we call the question.

2 SENATOR BATCH: Objection.

3 PRESIDENT HUNT: We're at ease for a 4 minute.

5 (At ease.)

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Madam President.

7 (At ease.)

8 PRESIDENT HUNT: The Senate will come
9 back to order.

10 Senator Batch, your objection is noted.
11 There was, however, no second to the motion so 12 it's not up for --

13 SENATOR BERGER: Madam President.

14 PRESIDENT HUNT: Senator Berger, for
15 what purpose do you rise?

16 SENATOR BERGER: I move the previous 17 question.

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Second.

19 PRESIDENT HUNT: Shall the main
20 question be put now. All in favor will vote
21 aye, all opposed will vote no. Five seconds 22 will be allowed for voting, and the clerk will 23 record the vote.

24 25 having voted in the affirmative, 8
25 in the negative, we have moved to the previous

1 question, and we are back on the bill.

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Objection to 3 third reading, Madam President.

4 PRESIDENT HUNT: Is there further
5 discussion or debate?

6 Senator Grafstein.

7 SENATOR GRAFSTEIN: Madam President, if 8 you would record me as a no on the previous 9 vote, please. I think there was some uncounted 10 votes.

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Madam President,
13 record me as a no.

14 PRESIDENT HUNT: Hold on one second.
15 All right. Hold on.

16 I've got a list of people who have 17 their buttons pushed. Did you all wish to vote 18 no on the previous question?

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes.

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes.

21 PRESIDENT HUNT: I'm going to read the 22 names. Smith.

23 SENATOR SMITH: Yes.

24 PRESIDENT HUNT: Mayfield, Waddell,
25 Theodros, Garrett, Salvador.

1           Also, Senator Chaudhuri and 2           Senator Murdock and Senator Everitt.

3           Just a second.

4           So the final count for the motion for 5           the previous question was 25 in the positive and 6           18 negative, so we will still have moved and 7           there is no debate on that, so we will go 8           straight to the vote.

9           The question before -- all right.
10          We're going to have to clear the gallery.

11          SENATOR DANIEL: Madam President.

12          PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes, Senator Daniel.

13          SENATOR DANIEL: Can we stand at ease
14          for five minutes until the gallery is cleared.

15          PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes.

16          (AT ease.)

17          PRESIDENT HUNT: All right. The 18          question before the Senate is the passage of 19          Senate Bill 249 on its second reading.

20          All in favor will vote aye, all opposed
21          will vote no. Five seconds will be allowed for 22          voting, and the clerk will record the vote.

23          25 having voted in the affirmative, 20
24          in the negative, Senate Bill 249 passes its 25          second reading and will be calendared for

1 tomorrow.

2 All right. Are there any notices or 3 announcements?

4 SENATOR BATCH: Madam President.

5 PRESIDENT HUNT: Yes. Senator Batch,
6 for what purpose do you rise?

7 SENATOR BATCH: I'd like to be 8 recognized for a point of order.

9 PRESIDENT HUNT: You are recognized for 10 a point of order.

11 SENATOR BATCH: I find it extremely 12 frustrating and disappointing that my members 13 were silenced and not everyone had the 14 opportunity to speak, especially given what is 15 happening today and especially being the first 16 black woman to lead a caucus in this state that 17 my voice was silenced when Senator Berger called 18 the question.

19 And so at this time, pursuant to 20 Article 2, Section 18, I would like to send 21 forth my constitutional protest because I find 22 this legislation and the actions of the members 23 in this chamber to be injurious to the public.

24 PRESIDENT HUNT: Bring forward your 25 protest.

1           Senator Grafstein, for what purpose do
2     you rise?

3           SENATOR GRAFSTEIN: Madam President, 4     for the same reasons as Senator Batch, pursuant 5     to Article 2, Section 18 of North Carolina 6     Constitution, point of order, I would like to 7     send forth my constitutional protest because I 8     want my dissent entered on the journal because 9     there's no legal justification for this action, 10    for the silencing of Senator Batch, and the 11    process that led to this bill which undermines 12    the very foundations of representative 13    government.

14          PRESIDENT HUNT: Bring forth your 15    protest.

16          Senator Applewhite, for what purpose do
17    you rise?

18          SENATOR APPLEWHITE: To be recognized 19    for a point of order.

20          PRESIDENT HUNT: You're recognized for 21    a point of order.

22          SENATOR APPLEWHITE: Pursuant to
