TOWN OF NEWBURGH TAKES LEGAL ACTION AGAINST THE CROSSROADS HOTEL

Release Date: May 12, 2023

The Town of Newburgh filed a lawsuit on May 12th 2023, in Orange County Supreme Court against the owner of the Crossroads Hotel.

The lawsuit seeks an injunction on the conversion of the hotel to long-term occupancy at the request of New York City, with on-site food, counseling, security, and other services to be provided by the City.

The Crossroads Hotel has not obtained the necessary variances, approvals, and permits from the Town of Newburgh for the publicized conversion to a use that does not comply with the Town's Zoning Code.
