You are hereby notified that the Court has entered the following order:

No. 2021AP802

Waity v. LeMahieu L.C. #2021CV589

On June 30, 2021, defendants-appellants, Devin LeMahieu and Robin Vos, in their official capacities, filed an expedited petition for bypass of the court of appeals in this matter. On July 7, 2021, plaintiffs-respondents, Andrew Waity, et al., filed a brief in opposition to the expedited petition for bypass. On July 8, 2021, the court granted the motion of the Wisconsin Democracy Campaign to file a non-party memorandum amicus curiae in opposition to the petition for bypass and accepted the memorandum for filing. On July 9, 2021, the court granted the defendants-appellants' motion to file a proposed reply memorandum in support of the expedited petition for bypass. In addition, because the expedited petition for bypass did not contain a listing of the issues presented for review, on July 9, 2021, the court ordered the defendants-appellants to file a supplement to their expedited petition for bypass identifying the issues presented for review. The defendants-appellants-petitioners filed a supplement later that day identifying five issues presented for review. On that same date, the court granted the plaintiffs-respondents' motion to file a response to the supplement to the expedited petition for bypass. The response also identified five issues. Although the parties' wording of the issues is not identical, the substance of the issues in both submissions is the same. Upon consideration of the foregoing,

IT IS ORDERED that the expedited petition to bypass is granted, and the appeal is accepted for consideration in this court; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, within 30 days of the date of this order, the defendants-appellants-petitioners must file a brief in this court; within 20 days of filing, plaintiffs-respondents must file a response brief; and within 10 days of filing of the response brief, the defendants-appellants-petitioners must file either a reply brief or a statement that no reply brief will be filed; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties will be notified of the date and time for oral argument in this appeal in due course.
